The Ascent shall not be more than One Foot in Thirty Feet if the Road be a Turnpike Road, One Foot in Twenty Feet if a public Carriage Road, and One Foot in Sixteen Feet if a private Carriage Road, not being a Tramroad or Railroad, or if the same be a Tramroad or Railroad the Ascent shall not be greater than the prescribed Rate of Inclination, and if no Rate be prescribed the same shall not be greater than as it existed at the passing of the special Act.

The Width of the Bridges need not exceed the Width of the Road in certain Cases.

LI. Provided always, That in all Cases where the average available Width for the Passage of Carriages of any existing Roads within Fifty Yards of the Points of crossing the same is less than the Width herein-before prescribed for Bridges over or under the Railway, the Width of such Bridges need not be greater than such average available Width of such Roads, but so nevertheless that such Bridges be not of less Width, in the Case of a Turnpike Road or public Carriage Road, than Twenty Feet: Provided also, that if at any Time after the Construction of the Railway the average available Width of any such Road shall be increased beyond the Width of such Bridge on either Side thereof, the Company shall be bound, at their own Expence, to increase the Width of the said Bridge to such Extent as they may be required by the Trustees or Surveyors of such Road, not exceeding the Width of such Road as so widened, or the maximum Width herein or in the special Act prescribed for a Bridge in the like Case over or under the Railway.

Existing Inclinations of Roads crossed or diverted need not be improved.

LII. Provided also, That if the mesne Inclination of any Road within Two hundred and fifty Yards of the Point of crossing the same, or the Inclination of such Portion of any Road as may require to be altered, or for which another Road shall be substituted, shall be steeper than the Inclination herein-before required to be preserved by the Company, then the Company may carry any such Road over or under the Railway, or may construct such altered or substituted Road at an Inclination not steeper than the said mesne Inclination of the Road so to be crossed, or of the Road so requiring to be altered, or for which another Road shall be substituted.

Before Roads interfered with, others to be substituted.

LIII. If, in the Exercise of the Powers by this or the special Act granted, it be found necessary to cross, cut through, raise, sink, or use any Part of any Road, whether Carriage Road, Horse Road, Tramroad, or Railway, either public or private, so as to render it impassable for or dangerous or extraordinarily inconvenient to Passengers or Carriages, or to the Persons entitled to the Use thereof, the Company shall, before the Commencement of any such Operations, cause a sufficient Road to be made instead of the Road to be interfered with, and shall at their own Expence maintain such substituted Road in a State as convenient for Passengers and Carriages as the Road so interfered with, or as nearly so as may be.

Penalty for not substituting a Road.

LIV. If the Company do not cause another sufficient Road to be so made before they interfere with any such existing Road as aforesaid, they shall forfeit Twenty Pounds for every Day during which such substituted Road shall not be made after the existing Road shall have been interrupted; and such Penalty shall be paid to the Trustees, Commissioners, Surveyor, or other Person having the Management of such Road, if a public Road, and shall be applied for the Purposes thereof, or in case of a private Road the same shall be paid to the Owner thereof, and every such Penalty shall be recoverable with Costs by Action in any of the Superior Courts.

LXVI. 'And whereas Expence might frequently be avoided, and public Convenience promoted, by a 'Reference to the Board of Trade upon the Construction of public Works of an engineering Nature 'connected with the Railway, where a strict Compliance with the Provisions of this or the special Act 'might be impossible, or attended with Inconvenience to the Company, and without adequate Advantage 'to the Public;' be it enacted, That in case any Difference in regard to the Construction, Alteration, or Restoration of any Road or Bridge, or other public Work of an engineering Nature, required by the Provisions of this or the special Act, shall arise between the Company and any Trustees, Commissioners, Surveyors, or other Persons having the Control of or being authorized by Law to enforce the Construction of such Road, Bridge, or Work, it shall be lawful for either Party, after giving Fourteen Days Notice in Writing of their Intention so to do to the other Party, to apply to the Board of Trade to decide upon the proper Manner of constructing, altering, or restoring such Road, Bridge, or other Work; and it shall be lawful for the Board of Trade, if they shall think fit, to decide the same accordingly, and to authorize, by Certificate in Writing, any Arrangement or Mode of Construction in regard to any such Road, Bridge, or other Work which shall appear to them either to be in substantial Compliance with the Provisions of this and the special Act, or to be calculated to afford equal or greater Accommodation to the Public using such Road, Bridge, or other Work; and after any such Certificate shall have been given by the Board of Trade, the Road, Bridge, or other Work therein mentioned shall be constructed by the Company in conformity with the Terms of such Certificate, and being so constructed shall be deemed to be constructed in conformity with the Provisions of this and the special Act: Provided always, that no such Certificate shall be granted by the Board of Trade unless they shall be satisfied that existing private Rights or Interests will not be injuriously affected thereby.

Also sufficient Posts, Rails, Hedges, Ditches, Mounds, or other Fences for separating the Land taken for the Use of the Railway from the adjoining Lands not taken, and protecting such Lands from Trespass, or the Cattle of the Owners or Occupiers thereof from straying thereout, by reason of the Railway, together with all necessary Gates made to open towards such adjoining Lands, and not towards the Railway, and all necessary Styles; and such Posts, Rails, and other Fences shall be made forthwith after the taking of any such Lands, if the Owners thereof shall so require, and the said other Works as soon as conveniently may be: Fences:

Also all necessary Arches, Tunnels, Culverts, Drains, or other Passages, either over or under or by the Sides of the Railway, of such Dimensions as will be sufficient at all Times to convey the Water as clearly from the Lands lying near or affected by the Railway as before the making of the Railway, or as nearly so as may be; and such Works shall be made from Time to Time as the Railway Works proceed: Drains:

Also proper Watering Places for Cattle where by reason of the Railway the Cattle of any Person occupying any Lands lying near thereto shall be deprived of Access to their former Watering Places; and such Watering Places shall be so made as to be at all Times as sufficiently supplied with Water as theretofore, and as if the Railway had not been made, or as nearly so as may be; and the Company shall make all necessary Watercourses and Drains for the Purpose of conveying Water to the said Watering Places: Watering Places.

Provided always, that the Company shall not be required to make such Accommodation Works in such a Manner as would prevent or obstruct the working or using of the Railway, nor to make any Accommodation Works with respect to which the Owners and Occupiers of the Lands shall have agreed to receive and shall have been paid Compensation instead of the making them.

LXIX. If any Difference arise respecting the Kind or Number of any such Accommodation Works, or the Dimensions or Sufficiency thereof, or respecting the maintaining thereof, the same shall be determined by Two Justices; and such Justices shall also appoint the Time within which such Works shall be commenced and executed by the Company. Differences as to Accommodation Works to be settled by Justices.

LXX. If for Fourteen Days next after the Time appointed by such Justices for the Commencement of any such Works the Company shall fail to commence such Works, or having commenced shall fail to proceed diligently to execute the same in a sufficient Manner, it shall be lawful for the Party aggrieved by such Failure himself to execute such Works or Repairs; and the reasonable Expences thereof shall be repaid by the Company to the Party by whom the same shall so have been executed; and if there be any Dispute about such Expences the same shall be settled by Two Justices: Provided always, that no such Owner or Occupier or other Person shall obstruct or injure the Railway, or any of the Works connected therewith, for a longer Time nor use them in any other Manner than is unavoidably necessary for the Execution or Repair of such Accommodation Works. Execution of Works by Owners on default by the Company.

LXXI. If any of the Owners or Occupiers of Lands affected by such Railway shall consider the Accommodation Works made by the Company, or directed by such Justices to be made by the Company, insufficient for the commodious Use of their respective Lands, it shall be lawful for any such Owner or Occupier, at any Time, at his own Expence, to make such further Works for that Purpose as he shall think necessary, and as shall be agreed to by the Company, or, in case of Difference, as shall be authorized by Two Justices. Power to Owners of Land to make additional Accommodation Works.

LXXII. If the Company so desire, all such last-mentioned Accommodation Works shall be constructed under the Superintendence of their Engineer, and according to Plans and Specifications to be submitted to and approved by such Engineer; nevertheless the Company shall not be entitled to require, either that Plans should be adopted which would involve a greater Expence than that incurred in the Execution of similar Works by the Company, or that the Plans selected should be executed in a more expensive Manner than that adopted in similar Cases by the Company. Such Works to be constructed under the Superintendence of the Company's Engineer.

LXXIII. The Company shall not be compelled to make any further or additional Accommodation Works for the Use of Owners and Occupiers of Land adjoining the Railway after the Expiration of the prescribed Period, or, if no Period be prescribed, after Five Years from the Completion of the Works, and the opening of the Railway for public Use. Accommodation Works not to be required after 5 Years.

LXXIV. Until the Company shall have made the Bridges or other proper Communications which they shall under the Provisions herein, or in the special Act, or any Act incorporated therewith, contained, have been required to make between Lands intersected by the Railway, and no longer, the Owners and Occupiers of such Lands, and any other Persons whose Right of Way shall be affected by the Want of such Communication, and their respective Servants, may at all Times freely pass and repass, with Carriages, Horses, and other Animals, directly (but not otherwise) across the Part of the Railway made in or through their respective Lands, solely for the Purpose of occupying the same Lands, or for the Exercise of such Right of Way, and so as not to obstruct the Passage along the Railway, or to damage the same; nevertheless, if the Owner or Occupier of any such Lands have in his Arrangements with the Company received or agreed to receive Compensation for or on account of any such Communications, Owners to be allowed to cross until Accommodation Works are made.

instead of the same being formed, such Owner or Occupier, or those claiming under him, shall not be entitled so to cross the Railway.

Penalty on Persons omitting to fasten Gates.

LXXV. If any Person omit to shut and fasten any Gate set up at either Side of the Railway, for the Accommodation of the Owners or Occupiers of the adjoining Lands, as soon as he, and the Carriage, Cattle or other Animals, under his Care, have passed through the same, he shall forfeit for every such Offence any Sum not exceeding Forty Shillings.

Branch Railways.

Power to Parties to make private Branch Railways communicating with the Railway. 5 & 6 Vict. c. 55.

LXXVI. And be it enacted, That this or the special Act shall not prevent the Owners or Occupiers of Lands adjoining to the Railway, or any other Persons, from laying down, either upon their own Lands or upon the Lands of other Persons, with the Consent of such Persons, any collateral Branches of Railway to communicate with the Railway, for the Purpose of bringing Carriages to or from or upon the Railway, but under and subject to the Provisions and Restrictions of an Act passed in the Sixth Year of the Reign of Her present Majesty, intituled An Act for the better Regulation of Railways, and for the Conveyance of Troops; and the Company shall, if required, at the Expence of such Owners and Occupiers and other Persons, and subject also to the Provisions of the said last-mentioned Act, make Openings in the Rails, and such additional Lines of Rail as may be necessary for effecting such Communication, in Places where the Communication can be made with Safety to the Public, and without Injury to the Railway and without Inconvenience to the Traffic thereon; and the Company shall not take any Rate or Toll or other Monies for the passing of any Passengers, Goods, or other Things along any Branch so to be made by any such Owner or Occupier or other Person; but this Enactment shall be subject to the following Restrictions and Conditions; (that is to say,)

Restrictions and Conditions.

No such Branch Railway shall run parallel to the Railway:

The Company shall not be bound to make any such Openings in any Place which they shall have set apart for any specific Purpose with which such Communication would interfere, nor upon any Inclined Plane or Bridge, nor in any Tunnel:

The Persons making or using such Branch Railways shall be subject to all Bye Laws and Regulations of the Company from Time to Time made with respect to passing upon or crossing the Railway, and otherwise; and the Persons making or using such Branch Railways shall be bound to construct, and from Time to Time, as Need may require, to renew, the offset Plates and Switches according to the most approved Plan adopted by the Company, and under the Direction of their Engineer.

LXXVII. The Company shall not be entitled to any Mines of Coal, Ironstone, Slate, or other Minerals under any Land purchased by them, except only such Parts thereof as shall be necessary to be dug or carried away or used in the Construction of the Works, unless the same shall have been expressly purchased; and all such Mines, excepting as aforesaid, shall be deemed to be excepted out of the Conveyance of such Lands, unless they shall have been expressly named therein and conveyed thereby.

Mines lying near the Railway not to be worked if the Company willing to purchase them.

LXXVIII. If the Owner, Lessee, or Occupier of any Mines or Minerals lying under the Railway, or any of the Works connected therewith, or within the prescribed Distance, or, where no Distance shall be prescribed, Forty Yards therefrom, be desirous of working the same, such Owner, Lessee, or Occupier shall give to the Company Notice in Writing of his Intention so to do Thirty Days before the Commencement of working; and upon the Receipt of such Notice it shall be lawful for the Company to cause such Mines to be inspected by any Person appointed by them for the Purpose; and if it appear to the Company that the working of such Mines or Minerals is likely to damage the Works of the Railway, and if the Company be willing to make Compensation for such Mines or any Part thereof to such Owner, Lessee, or Occupier thereof, then he shall not work or get the same; and if the Company, and such Owner, Lessee, or Occupier, do not agree as to the Amount of such Compensation, the same shall be settled as in other Cases of disputed Compensation.

If Company unwilling to purchase, Owner may work the Mines.

LXXIX. If before the Expiration of such Thirty Days the Company do not state their Willingness to treat with such Owner, Lessee, or Occupier for the Payment of such Compensation, it shall be lawful for him to work the said Mines or any Part thereof for which the Company shall not have agreed to pay Compensation, so that the same be done in a Manner proper and necessary for the beneficial working thereof, and according to the usual Manner of working such Mines in the District where the same shall be situate; and if any Damage or Obstruction be occasioned to the Railway or Works by improper working of such Mines, the same shall be forthwith repaired or removed, as the Case may require, and such Damage made good, by the Owner, Lessee, or Occupier of such Mines or Minerals, and at his own Expence; and if such Repair or Removal be not forthwith done, or, if the Company shall so think fit, without waiting for the same to be done by such Owner, Lessee, or Occupier, it shall be lawful for the Company to execute the same, and recover from such Owner, Lessee, or Occupier the Expence occasioned thereby, by Action in any of the Superior Courts.

Mining Communications.

LXXX. If the working of any such Mines under the Railway or Works, or within the above-mentioned Distance therefrom, be prevented as aforesaid by reason of apprehended Injury to the Railway, it shall be lawful for the respective Owners, Lessees, and Occupiers of such Mines, and whose Mines shall extend so as to lie on both Sides of the Railway, to cut and make such and so many Airways, Headways, Gateways, or Water Levels through the Mines, Measures, or Strata, the working whereof shall be so prevented, as may be requisite to enable them to ventilate, drain, and work their said Mines, but no such Airway, Headway, Gateway, or Water Level shall be of greater Dimensions or Section than the prescribed Dimensions and Sections, and where no Dimensions shall be described not greater greater than Eight Feet wide and Eight Feet high, nor shall the same be cut or made upon any Part of the Railway or Works, or so as to injure the same, or to impede the Passage thereon.

Company to make Compensation for Injury done to Mines;

LXXXI. The Company shall from Time to Time pay to the Owner, Lessee, or Occupier of any such Mines extending so as to lie on both Sides of the Railway all such additional Expences and Losses as shall be incurred by such Owner, Lessee, or Occupier by reason of the Severance of the Lands lying over such Mines by the Railway, or of the continuous working of such Mines being interrupted as aforesaid, or by reason of the same being worked in such Manner and under such Restrictions as not to prejudice or injure the Railway, and for any Minerals not purchased by the Company which cannot be obtained by reason of making and maintaining the Railway; and if any Dispute or Question shall arise between the Company and such Owner, Lessee, or Occupier as aforesaid, touching the Amount of such Losses or Expences, the same shall be settled by Arbitration.

and also for any Airway or other Work made necessary by the Railway.

LXXXII. If any Loss or Damage be sustained by the Owner or Occupier of the Lands lying over any such Mines the working whereof shall have been so prevented as aforesaid (and not being the Owner, Lessee, or Occupier of such Mines), by reason of the making of any such Airway or other Work as aforesaid, which or any like Work would not have been necessary to be made but for the working of such Mines having been so prevented as aforesaid, the Company shall make full Compensation to such Owner or Occupier of the Surface Lands for the Loss or Damage so sustained by him.

Power to Company to enter and inspect the working of Mines.

LXXXIII. For better ascertaining whether any such Mines are being worked or have been worked so as to damage the Railway or Works, it shall be lawful for the Company, after giving Twenty-four Hours Notice in Writing, to enter upon any Lands through or near which the Railway passes wherein any such Mines are being worked or are supposed so to be, and to enter into and return from any such Mines or the Works connected therewith; and for that Purpose it shall be lawful for them to make use of any Apparatus or Machinery belonging to the Owner, Lessee, or Occupier of such Mines, and to use all necessary Means for discovering the Distance from the Railway to the Parts of such Mines which are being worked or about so to be.

Penalty for Refusal to inspect.

LXXXIV. If any such Owner, Lessee, or Occupier of any such Mine shall refuse to allow any Person appointed by the Company for that Purpose to enter into and inspect any such Mines or Works in manner aforesaid, every Person so offending shall for every such Refusal forfeit to the Company a Sum not exceeding Twenty Pounds.

If Mines improperly worked, the Company may require Means to be adopted for the Safety of the Railway.

LXXXV. If it appear that any such Mines have been worked contrary to the Provisions of this or the special Act, the Company may, if they think fit, give Notice to the Owner, Lessee, or Occupier thereof to construct such Works and to adopt such Means as may be necessary or proper for making safe the Railway, and preventing Injury thereto; and if after such Notice any such Owner, Lessee, or Occupier do not forthwith proceed to construct the Works necessary for making safe the Railway, the Company may themselves construct such Works, and recover the Expence thereof from such Owner, Lessee, or Occupier by Action in any of the Superior Courts.

Passengers and Goods on Railway.

And with respect to the carrying of Passengers and Goods upon the Railway, and the Tolls to be taken thereon, be it enacted as follows:

Company to employ locomotive Power, Carriages, &c.

LXXXVI. It shall be lawful for the Company to use and employ locomotive Engines or other moving Power, and Carriages and Waggons to be drawn or propelled thereby, and to carry and convey upon the Railway all such Passengers and Goods as shall be offered to them for that Purpose, and to make such reasonable Charges in respect thereof as they may from Time to Time determine upon, not exceeding the Tolls by the special Act authorized to be taken by them.

Company empowered to contract with other Companies.

LXXXVII. It shall be lawful for the Company from Time to Time to enter into any Contract with any other Company, being the Owners or Lessees or in possession of any other Railway, for the Passage over or along the Railway by the special Act authorized to be made of any Engines, Coaches, Waggons, or other Carriages of any other Company, or which shall pass over any other Line of Railway, or for the Passage over any other Line of Railway of any Engines, Coaches, Waggons, or other Carriages of the Company, or which shall pass over their Line of Railway, upon the Payment of such Tolls and under such Conditions and Restrictions as may be mutually agreed upon; and for the Purpose aforesaid it shall be lawful for the respective Parties to enter into any Contract for the Division or Apportionment of the Tolls to be taken upon their respective Railways.

Contracts not to affect Persons not Parties thereto.

LXXXVIII. Provided always, That no such Contract as aforesaid shall in any Manner alter, affect, increase, or diminish any of the Tolls which the respective Companies, Parties to such Contracts, shall for the Time being be respectively authorized and entitled to demand or receive from any Person or any other Company, but that all other Persons and Companies shall, notwithstanding any such Contract, be entitled to the Use and Benefit of any of the said Railways, upon the same Terms and Conditions, and on Payment of the same Tolls, as they would have been in case no such Contract had been entered into.

Company not to be liable to a greater Extent than Common Carriers.

LXXXIX. Nothing in this or the special Act contained shall extend to charge or make liable the Company further or in any other Case than where, according to the Laws of the Realm, Stage Coach Proprietors and Common Carriers would be liable, nor shall extend in any Degree to deprive the Company of any Protection or Privilege which Common Carriers or Stage Coach Proprietors may be entitled to; but, on the contrary, the Company shall at all Times be entitled to the Benefit of every such Protection and Privilege.

XC. 'And

Power to vary Tolls.

XC. 'And whereas it is expedient that the Company should be enabled to vary the Tolls upon the 'Railway so as to accommodate them to the Circumstances of the Traffic, but that such Power of 'varying should not be used for the Purpose of prejudicing or favouring particular Parties, or for the 'Purpose of collusively and unfairly creating a Monopoly, either in the Hands of the Company or of 'particular Parties;' it shall be lawful, therefore, for the Company, subject to the Provisions and Limitations herein and in the special Act contained, from Time to Time to alter or vary the Tolls by the special Act authorized to be taken, either upon the whole or upon any particular Portions of the Railway, as they shall think fit; provided that all such Tolls be at all Times charged equally to all Persons, and after the same Rate, whether per Ton per Mile or otherwise, in respect of all Passengers, and of all Goods or Carriages of the same Description, and conveyed or propelled by a like Carriage or Engine, passing only over the same Portion of the Line of Railway under the same Circumstances; and no Reduction or Advance in any such Tolls shall be made either directly or indirectly in favour of or against any particular Company or Person travelling upon or using the Railway.

Tolls to be charged equally under like Circumstances.

40 G. 3. (I.)

'that it had become necessary to make further Provision for the good Government of the said College 'or Seminary, it was amongst other things enacted, that the Lord Chancellor or Lord Keeper of the 'Great Seal, the Lord Chief Justice of the Court of King's Bench, the Lord Chief Justice of the Court 'of Common Pleas, the Chancellor of the Exchequer, and the Lord Chief Baron of the Court of 'Exchequer should cease to be Trustees for carrying the said first-recited Act into execution, and that 'their Successors in the said Offices respectively should not thereafter be Trustees by virtue of the said 'first-recited Act for carrying it into execution, and that the other Persons named in the said first-'recited Act in that Behalf, or such other Persons as had been elected or thereafter should be elected to 'fill any Vacancy occasioned by the Death, Removal, or Resignation of any such Persons respectively, 'should continue Trustees for the Execution of the said first-recited Act, as fully and effectually, to all 'Intents and Purposes, as if the said Act now in recital had not been enacted: And whereas by a certain 'other Act passed in the Forty-eighth Year of the Reign of His said late Majesty King George the Third, 'intituled An Act to amend Two Acts passed in Ireland for the better Education of Persons professing the 'Roman Catholic Religion, and for the better Government of the Seminary established at Maynooth for 'the Education of such Persons, so far as relates to the Purchase of Lands and compounding Suits, it 'was amongst other things enacted, that it should be lawful for the Trustees for the Time being of the said 'College or Academy, or any Seven or more of them, to purchase or acquire Lands not exceeding in Value 'the annual Sum of One thousand Pounds, exclusive of the Value of Lands and Premises held under a 'Lease from William Robert late Duke of Leinster, and the Buildings thereon or thereafter to be erected, 'and used for the Purposes of the said College or Academy; and it was provided and further enacted, 'that any Lands, Tenements, or Hereditaments already purchased or acquired under or by virtue of the 'Power for that Purpose given to the said Trustees or any Seven or more of them in and by the said 'herein-before first-recited Act should be deemed Part of the Lands which they were so authorized to 'purchase or acquire as aforesaid, and that no more Lands, Tenements, or Hereditaments should 'be purchased or acquired by the said Trustees or any Seven or more of them than what, together with 'any Lands already purchased or acquired by them, would amount to the annual Value of One thousand 'Pounds: And whereas it is productive of Inconvenience and Insecurity that the said Trustees can take 'no effectual Grants of Lands for the Purposes of the said College or Seminary to them and their Suc-'cessors; and it is therefore expedient that the said Trustees should be incorporated:' Be it therefore enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That the Trustees of the said College or Seminary, and their Successors for ever, shall be One Body Politic and Corporate by the Name of "The Trustees of the College of Maynooth," and by that Name shall have perpetual Succession and a Common Seal, and by that Name shall and may sue and be sued, and shall have and possess the several Powers and Authorities vested in the said Trustees under the said recited Acts.

'Majesty, intituled An Act to amend the Laws concerning Prisons, some of the Restrictions imposed by 'the said recited Act of the Fourth Year of the Reign of King George the Fourth upon the Power 'thereby given to borrow Money on Mortgage of the Rate of any County, for the Purposes therein men- 'tioned, were repealed, and in lieu thereof other Restrictions were imposed upon the Power given by 'the said last-mentioned Act to borrow Money for the Purposes therein mentioned: And whereas the 'Rates of the County of Middlesex are now charged with the Payment of a large Amount of Money, 'under the Provisions of the several herein-before recited Acts, or some of them, and of certain other 'Acts: And whereas it may from Time to Time be necessary to borrow on Mortgage of the same Rates 'further Sums of Money, to be applied for the Purposes mentioned in the said several recited Acts of 'the Fourth, Seventh, and Ninth Years of the Reign of His said Majesty King George the Fourth, and 'the said Act passed in the Session of Parliament holden in the Fourth and Fifth Years of the Reign of 'Her present Majesty; but such of the Restrictions imposed by the same several Acts respectively, and 'by the said recited Act passed in the Session of Parliament holden in the Fifth and Sixth Years of the 'Reign of Her present Majesty, upon the Powers given to borrow Money for the Purposes aforesaid, as 'still remain unrepealed, make the borrowing of Money on Mortgage of the Rates of the said County 'of Middlesex for the Purposes aforesaid unnecessarily burdensome to the Rate-payers of the said 'County; and the Provisions contained in the said several recited Acts of the Fifth, Sixth, and Seventh 'Years of the Reign of His said Majesty King George the Fourth, and in the said recited Act passed in 'the Session of Parliament holden in the Fourth and Fifth Years of the Reign of Her present Majesty, 'enabling Justices of the Peace to borrow Money for the Purpose of paying off or discharging Money 'borrowed under the Provisions or for the Purposes of the said recited Acts, or some of them, may 'render it difficult for the Justices of the Peace of the said County of Middlesex to borrow Money on 'Mortgage of the Rates of the same County, for the Purposes aforesaid, upon Terms advantageous to 'the said Rate-payers; and it is therefore expedient that so much of the said several recited Acts as 'authorizes the Justices of the Peace to borrow Money on Mortgage of County Rates for any other 'Purpose than that of paying off or discharging Money which at the Time of the passing of this Act hath 'been borrowed on Mortgage of the Rates of any County should be repealed, so far as relates to the 'County of Middlesex; and that the Justices of the Peace for the same County should be authorized to 'borrow on Mortgage of the Rates of the same County such Sums of Money as may be hereafter required 'for the Purposes mentioned in the said several herein-before recited Acts of the Fourth, Seventh, and 'Ninth Years of the Reign of His said Majesty King George the Fourth, and the said Act passed in the 'Session of Parliament holden in the Fourth and Fifth Years of the Reign of Her present Majesty 'respectively, (other than for paying off or discharging Money hereafter to be borrowed on Mortgage of 'the Rates of the same County,) without being subject to the Restrictions by the same several Acts 'and the said recited Act passed in the Session of Parliament holden in the Fifth and Sixth Years of 'the Reign of Her present Majesty respectively imposed upon the Powers thereby given to borrow Money 'for the Purposes aforesaid, but subject to such other Restrictions as are herein-after imposed:' Be it therefore enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That so much of the said several recited Acts as authorizes the Justices of the Peace for any County to borrow Money on Mortgage of the Rates to be raised upon such County for any Purpose (other than the Purpose of paying off or discharging any Money which at the Time of the passing of this Act hath been borrowed on Mortgage of the Rates of such County), so far as the said several recited Acts respectively relate to the said County of Middlesex, shall be and the same is hereby repealed.

XLIII. Every Bridge erected for carrying any Road over the Railway shall, except as otherwise provided by the special Act, be built in conformity with the following Regulations; (that is to say,)

There shall be a good and sufficient Fence on each Side of the Bridge of not less Height than Four Feet, and on each Side of the immediate Approaches of such Bridge of not less than Three Feet:

The Road over the Bridge shall have a clear Space between the Fences thereof of Thirty-five Feet if the Road be a Turnpike Road, and Twenty-five Feet if a public Carriage Road, and Twelve Feet if a private Road:

The Ascent shall not be more than One Foot in Thirty Feet if the Road be a Turnpike Road, One Foot in Twenty Feet if a public Carriage Road, and One Foot in Sixteen Feet if a private Carriage Road, not being a Tramroad or Railroad, or if the same be a Tramroad or Railroad the Ascent shall not be greater than the prescribed Rate of Inclination, and if no Rate be prescribed the same shall not be greater than as it existed at the passing of the special Act.

The Width of the Bridges need not exceed the Width of Road in certain Cases.

XLIV. Provided always, That in all Cases where the average available Width for the Passage of Carriages of any existing Roads within Fifty Yards of the Points of crossing the same is less than the Width herein-before prescribed for Bridges over or under the Railway, the Width of such Bridges need not be greater than such average available Width of such Roads, but so nevertheless that such Bridges be not of less Width, in the Case of a Turnpike Road or public Carriage Road, than Twenty Feet: Provided also, that if at any Time after the Construction of the Railway the average available Width of any such Road shall be increased beyond the Width of such Bridge on either Side thereof, the Company shall be bound, at their own Expence, to increase the Width of the said Bridge to such Extent as they may be required by the Trustees or Surveyors of such Road, not exceeding the Width of such Road as so widened, or the maximum Width herein or in the special Act prescribed for a Bridge in the like Case over or under the Railway.

Existing Inclinations of Roads crossed or diverted need not be improved.

XLV. Provided also, That if the Mesne Inclination of any Road within Two hundred and fifty Yards of the Point of crossing the same, or the Inclination of such Portion of any Road as may require to be altered, or for which another Road shall be substituted, shall be steeper than the Inclination herein before required to be preserved by the Company, then the Company may carry any such Road over or under the Railway, or may construct such altered or substituted Road at an Inclination not steeper than the said Mesne Inclination of the Road so to be crossed, or of the Road so requiring to be altered, or for which another Road shall be substituted.

Before Roads interfered with, others to be substituted.

XLVI. If, in the Exercise of the Powers by this or the special Act granted, it be found necessary to cross, cut through, raise, sink, or use any Part of any Road, whether Carriage Road, Horse Road, Tramroad, or Railway, either public or private, so as to render it impassable for or dangerous to Passengers or Carriages, or to the Persons entitled to the Use thereof, the Company shall, before the Commencement of any such Operations, cause a sufficient Road to be made instead of the Road to be interfered with, and shall at their own Expence maintain such substituted Road in a State as convenient for Passengers and Carriages as the Road so interfered with, or as nearly so as may be.

Penalty for not substituting a Road.

XLVII. If the Company do not cause another sufficient Road to be so made before they interfere with any such existing Road as aforesaid they shall forfeit Twenty Pounds for every Day during which such substituted Road shall not be made after the existing Road shall have been interrupted; and such Penalty shall be paid to the Trustees, Commissioners, Surveyor, or other Person having the Management of such Road, if a public Road, and shall be applied for the Purposes thereof, or in case of a private Road the same shall be paid to the Owner thereof; and every such Penalty shall be recoverable, with Costs, by Action in any competent Court.

Party suffering Damage from Interruption of Road to recover in an Action on the Case.

XLVIII. If any Party entitled to a Right of Way over any Road so interfered with by the Company shall suffer any special Damage by reason that the Company shall fail to cause another sufficient Road to be made before they interfere with the existing Road it shall be lawful for such Party to recover the Amount of such special Damage from the Company, with Expences, by Action in the Court of Session, if the Damage claimed exceeds Twenty-five Pounds, or in the Sheriff Court, if the Damage claimed does not exceed Twenty-five Pounds, and that whether any Party shall have sued for such Penalty as aforesaid or not, and without Prejudice to the Right of any Party to sue for the same.

Period for Restoration of Roads interfered with.

XLIX. If the Road so interfered with can be restored compatibly with the Formation and Use of the Railway, the same shall be restored to as good a Condition as the same was in at the Time when the same was first interfered with by the Company, or as near thereto as may be; and if such Road cannot be restored compatibly with the Formation and Use of the Railway, the Company shall cause the new or substituted Road, or some other sufficient substituted Road, to be put into a permanently substantial Condition, equally convenient as the former Road, or as near thereto as Circumstances will allow; and the former Road shall be restored, or the substituted Road put into such Condition as aforesaid, as the Case may be, within the following Periods after the first Operation on the former Road shall have been commenced, unless the Trustees or Parties having the Management of the Road to be restored by Writing under their Hands consent to an Extension of the Period, and in such Case within such extended Period, (that is to say,) if the Road be a Turnpike Road, within Six Months, and if the Road be not a Turnpike Road, within Twelve Months.

Penalty for failing to restore Road.

L. If any such Road be not so restored, or the substituted Road so completed as aforesaid, within the Periods herein or in the special Act fixed for that Purpose, the Company shall forfeit to the Trustees, Commissioners, Surveyor, or other Person having the Management of the Road interfered with by the Company, if a public Road, or if a private Road to the Owner thereof, Twenty Pounds for every Day after the Expiration of such Periods respectively during which such Road shall not be so restored or the substituted Road completed; and it shall be lawful for the Sheriff or Justices by whom any such Penalty is imposed to order the whole or any Part thereof to be laid out in executing the Work in respect whereof such Penalty was incurred.

Sheriff or Justices to have Power to order Approaches and Fences to be made to Highways crossing on the Level.

LIV. If, when the Railway shall cross any Highway on the Level, the Company fail to make convenient Ascents and Descents or other convenient Approaches, and such Handrails, Fences, Gates, and Stiles as they are herein-before required to make, it shall be lawful for the Sheriff or Two Justices, on the Application of the Surveyor of Roads, or of any Two Householders within the Parish or District where such Crossing shall be situate, after not less than Ten Days Notice to the Company, to order the Company to make such Ascent and Descent or other Approach, or such Handrails, Fences, Gates, or Stiles as aforesaid, within a Period to be limited for that Purpose by such Sheriff or Justices; and if the Company fail to comply with such Order they shall forfeit Five Pounds for every Day that they fail so to do; and it shall be lawful for the Sheriff or Justices by whom any such Penalty is imposed to order the Penalty for failing to construct.

LVI. Where by any such Certificate as aforesaid the Company shall have been required to execute any such Work in the Nature of a Screen they shall execute and complete the same within the Period appointed for that Purpose in such Certificate, and if they fail so to do they shall forfeit to the Commissioners or Trustees or Surveyor Five Pounds for every Day during which such Works shall remain uncompleted beyond the Period so appointed for their Completion; and it shall be lawful for the Justices by whom any such Penalty is imposed to order the whole or any Part thereof to be laid out in executing the Work in respect whereof such Penalty was incurred.

LVIII. 'And whereas Expence might frequently be avoided, and public Convenience promoted, by a 'Reference to the Board of Trade upon the Construction of public Works of an engineering Nature 'connected with the Railway, where a strict Compliance with the Provisions of this or the special Act 'might be impossible or attended with Inconvenience to the Company, and without adequate Advantage 'to the Public;' be it enacted, That in case any Difference in regard to the Construction, Alteration, or Restoration of any Road or Bridge, or other public Work of an engineering Nature, required by the Provisions of this or the special Act, shall arise between the Company and any Trustees, Commissioners, Surveyors, or other Persons having the Control of or being authorized by Law to enforce the Construction of such Road, Bridge, or Work, it shall be lawful for either Party, after giving Fourteen Days Notice in Writing of their Intention so to do to the other Party, to apply to the Board of Trade to decide upon the proper Manner of constructing, altering, or restoring such Road, Bridge, or other Work; and it shall be lawful for the Board of Trade, if they shall think fit, to decide the same accordingly, and to authorize, by Certificate in Writing, any Arrangement or Mode of Construction in regard to any such Road, Bridge, or other Work which shall appear to them either to be in substantial Compliance with the Provisions of this and the special Act, or to be calculated to afford equal or greater Accommodation to the Public using such Road, Bridge, or other Work; and after any such Certificate shall have been given by the Board of Trade the Road, Bridge, or other Work therein mentioned shall be constructed by the Company in conformity with the Terms of such Certificate, and being so constructed shall be deemed to be constructed in conformity with the Provisions of this and the special Act: Provided always, that no such Certificate shall be granted by the Board of Trade unless they shall be satisfied that existing private Rights or Interests will not be injuriously affected thereby.

And with respect to Works for the Accommodation of Lands adjoining the Railway, be it enacted as follows:

Works for adjoining Lands.

LX. The Company shall make and at all Times thereafter maintain the following Works for the Accommodation of the Owners and Occupiers of Lands adjoining the Railway; (that is to say,)

Gates, Bridges, &c.:

Such and so many convenient Gates, Bridges, Arches, Culverts, and Passages over, under, or by the Sides of or leading to or from the Railway as shall be necessary for the Purpose of making good any

Interruptions caused by the Railway to the Use of the Lands through which the Railway shall be made; and such Works shall be made forthwith after the Part of the Railway passing over such Lands shall have been laid out or formed, or during the Formation thereof:

Fences: Also sufficient Posts, Rails, Hedges, Ditches, Mounds, or other Fences for separating the Land taken for the Use of the Railway from the adjoining Lands not taken, and protecting such Lands from Trespass, or the Cattle of the Owners or Occupiers thereof from straying thereout, by reason of the Railway, together with all necessary Gates made to open towards such adjoining Lands, and not towards the Railway, and all necessary Stiles; and such Posts, Rails, and other Fences shall be made forthwith after the taking of any such Lands, if the Owners thereof shall so require, and the said other Works as soon as conveniently may be:

Drains: Also all necessary Arches, Tunnels, Culverts, Drains, or other Passages either over or under or by the Sides of the Railway, of such Dimensions as will be sufficient at all Times to convey the Water as clearly from the Lands lying near or affected by the Railway as before the making of the Railway, or as nearly so as may be; and such Works shall be made from Time to Time as the Railway Works proceed:

Watering Places. Also proper Watering Places for Cattle where by reason of the Railway the Cattle of any Person occupying any Lands lying near thereto shall be deprived of Access to their former Watering Places; and such Watering Places shall be so made as to be at all Times as sufficiently supplied with Water as theretofore, and as if the Railway had not been made, or as nearly so as may be; and the Company shall make all necessary Watercourses and Drains for the Purpose of conveying Water to the said Watering Places:

Provided always, that the Company shall not be required to make such Accommodation Works in such a Manner as would prevent or obstruct the working or using of the Railway, and that the Company may, in lieu of such Accommodation Works, make Compensation to the Owners and Occupiers of the Lands, for the Want thereof, in such Manner as may be agreed upon between the Company and such Owners and Occupiers, nor to make any Accommodation Works with respect to which the Owners, Lessees, and Occupiers of the Lands shall have agreed to receive and shall have been paid Compensation instead of the making of them.

Differences to be settled by Sheriff or Justices. LXI. If any Difference arise respecting the Kind or Number of any such Accommodation Works, or the Dimensions or Sufficiency thereof, or respecting the maintaining thereof, the same shall be determined by the Sheriff or Two Justices; and such Sheriff or Justices shall also appoint the Time within which such Works shall be commenced and executed by the Company.

Execution of Works by Owners on default by the Company. LXII. If for Seven Days next after the Time appointed by such Sheriff or Justices for the Commencement of any such Works the Company shall fail to commence such Works, or having commenced shall fail to proceed diligently to execute the same in a sufficient Manner, it shall be lawful for the Party aggrieved by such Failure himself to execute such Works or Repairs; and the reasonable Expences thereof shall be repaid by the Company to the Party by whom the same shall so have been executed; and if there be any Dispute about such Expences the same shall be settled by the Sheriff or Two Justices: Provided always, that no such Owner or Occupier or other Person shall obstruct or injure the Railway, or any of the Works connected therewith, for a longer Time, nor use them in any other Manner, than is unavoidably necessary for the Execution or Repair of such Accommodation Works.

Power to Owners of Land to make additional Accommodation Works. LXIII. If any of the Owners or Occupiers of Lands affected by such Railway shall consider the Accommodation Works made by the Company, or directed by such Sheriff or Justices to be made by the Company, insufficient for the commodious Use of their respective Lands, it shall be lawful for any such Owner or Occupier, at his own Expence, to make such further Works for that Purpose as he shall think necessary, and as shall be agreed to by the Company, or, in case of Difference, as shall be authorized by the Sheriff or Two Justices.

Such Works to be constructed under the Superintendence of the Company's Engineer. LXIV. If the Company so desire, all such last-mentioned Accommodation Works shall be constructed under the Superintendence of their Engineer, and according to Plans and Specifications to be submitted to and approved by such Engineer; nevertheless the Owners or Occupiers of Lands shall not be entitled to require either that Plans should be adopted which would involve a greater Expence than that incurred in the Execution of similar Works by the Company, or that the Plans selected should be executed in a more expensive Manner than that adopted in similar Cases by the Company.

Accommodation Works not to be required after Five Years. LXV. The Company shall not be compelled to make any further or additional Accommodation Works for the Use of Owners and Occupiers of Land adjoining the Railway after the Expiration of the prescribed Period, or, if no Period be prescribed, after Five Years from the opening of the Railway for public Use.

Owners to be allowed to cross until Accommodation Works are made. LXVI. Until the Company shall have made the Bridges or other proper Communications which they shall under the Provisions herein or in the special Act, or any Act incorporated therewith, contained, have been required to make between Lands intersected by the Railway, and no longer, the Owners and Occupiers of such Lands, and any other Persons whose Right of Way shall be affected by the Want of such Communication, and their respective Servants, may at all Times freely pass and repass, with Carriages, Horses, and other Animals, directly (but not otherwise) across the Part of the Railway made in or through their respective Lands, solely for the Purpose of occupying the same Lands, or for the Exercise of such Right of Way, and so as not to obstruct the Passage along the Railway, or to damage the same; nevertheless, if the Owner or Occupier of any such Lands have in his Arrangements with the Company received or agreed to receive Compensation for or on account of any such Communications, instead instead of the same being formed, such Owner or Occupier, or those claiming under him, shall not be entitled so to cross the Railway.

Materials, &c. to vest in Company for Purposes of Prosecution.

LXVII. During the Execution of any Contract made with the Company the Works in course of being done under such Contract, and all the Materials of every Description brought upon or near such Works for the Purpose of being used in the Execution of such Contract, shall, in all Proceedings instituted by them for the Purpose of protecting the same, or by the public Prosecutor for the Purpose of Punishment on account of Offences committed against the same, be held to be the Property of the Company.

Penalty on Persons omitting to fasten Gates.

LXVIII. If any Person omit to shut and fasten any Gate set up at either Side of the Railway, for the Accommodation of the Owners or Occupiers of the adjoining Lands, as soon as he, and the Carriage, Cattle, or other Animals, under his Care, have passed through the same, he shall forfeit for every such Offence any Sum not exceeding Forty Shillings.

Branch Railways.

Power to make private communicating Branch Railways. 5 & 6 Vict. c. 55.

LXIX. And be it enacted, That this or the special Act shall not prevent the Owners or Occupiers of Lands adjoining to the Railway, or any other Persons, from laying down, either upon their own Lands or upon the Lands of other Persons, with the Consent of such Persons, any collateral Branches of Railway to communicate with the Railway, for the Purpose of bringing Carriages to or from or upon the Railway, but under and subject to the Provisions and Restrictions of an Act passed in the Sixth Year of the Reign of Her present Majesty, intituled An Act for the better Regulation of Railways, and for the Conveyance of Troops; and the Company shall, if required, at the Expence of such Owners and Occupiers and other Persons, and subject also to the Provisions of the said last-mentioned Act, make Openings in the Rails, and such additional Lines of Rail as may be necessary for effecting such Communication, in Places where the Communication can be made with Safety to the Public, and without Injury to the Railway, and without Inconvenience to the Traffic thereon; and the Company shall not take any Rate or Toll or other Monies for the passing of any Passengers, Goods, or other Things along any Branch so to be made by any such Owner or Occupier or other Person; but this Enactment shall be subject to the following Restrictions and Conditions; (that is to say,)

Restrictions and Conditions.

No such Branch Railway shall run parallel to the Railway:

The Company shall not be bound to make any such Openings in any Place which they shall have set apart for any specific Purpose with which such Communication would interfere, nor upon any Inclined Plane or Bridge, nor in any Tunnel:

The Persons making or using such Branch Railways shall be subject to all Byé Laws and Regulations of the Company from Time to Time made with respect to passing upon or crossing the Railway, and otherwise; and the Persons making or using such Branch Railways shall be bound to construct, and from Time to Time as Need may require, to renew, the offset Places and Switches according to the most approved Plan adopted by the Company, and under the Direction of their Engineer.

And with respect to Mines lying under or near the Railway, be it enacted as follows:

Promoters not to be entitled to Minerals.

LXX. The Company shall not be entitled to any Mines of Coal, Ironstone, Slate, or other Minerals under any Land purchased by them, except only such Parts thereof as shall be necessary to be dug or carried away or used in the Construction of the Works, unless the same shall have been expressly purchased; and all such Mines, excepting as aforesaid, shall be deemed to be excepted out of the Conveyance of such Lands, unless they shall have been expressly named therein and conveyed thereby.

Mines lying near the Railway not to be worked if the Company willing to purchase them.

LXXI. If the Owner, Lessee, or Occupier of any Mines or Minerals lying under the Railway, or any of the Works connected therewith, or within the prescribed Distance, or, where no Distance shall be prescribed, Forty Yards therefrom, be desirous of working the same, such Owner, Lessee, or Occupier shall give to the Company Notice in Writing of his Intention so to do Thirty Days before the Commencement of working; and upon the Receipt of such Notice it shall be lawful for the Company to cause such Mines to be inspected by any Person appointed by them for the Purpose; and if it appear to the Company that the working of such Mines, either wholly or partially, is likely to damage the Works of the Railway, and if the Company be desirous that such Mines or any Parts thereof should be left unworked, and if they be willing to make Compensation for such Mines or Minerals, or such Parts thereof as they desire to be left unworked, they shall give Notice to such Owner, Lessee, or Occupier of such their Desire, and shall in such Notice specify the Parts of the Mines under the Railway or Works or within the Distance aforesaid which they shall desire to be left unworked, and for which they shall be willing to make Compensation; and in such Case such Owner, Lessee, or Occupier shall not work or get the Mines or Minerals comprised in such Notice; and the Company shall make Compensation for the same, and for all Loss or Damage occasioned by the non-working thereof, to the Owner, Lessee, and Occupier thereof respectively; and if the Company, and such Owner, Lessee, or Occupier, do not agree as to the Amount of such Compensation, the same shall be settled as in other Cases of disputed Compensation.

If Company unwilling to purchase, Owner may work the Mines.

LXXII. If before the Expiration of such Thirty Days the Company do not give Notice of their Desire to have such Mines left unworked, and of their Willingness to make such Compensation as aforesaid, it shall be lawful for such Owner, Lessee, or Occupier to work the said Mines, or such Parts thereof for which the Company shall not have agreed to pay Compensation, up to the Limits of the Mines or Minerals for which they shall have agreed to make Compensation, in such Manner as such Owner, Lessee, or Occupier shall think fit, for the Purpose of getting the Minerals contained therein; and if any Damage or Obstruction be occasioned to the Railway or Works by the working or getting of any such Minerals which the Company shall so have required to be left unworked, and for which they shall so have agreed to make Compensation, the same shall be forthwith repaired or removed, as the Case may require, and such Damage made good, by the Owner, Lessee, or Occupier of such Mines or Minerals, and at his own Expence; and if such Repair or Removal be not forthwith done, or, if the Company shall so think fit, without waiting for the same to be done by such Owner, Lessee, or Occupier, it shall be lawful for the Company to execute the same, and recover from such Owner, Lessee, or Occupier the Expence occasioned thereby by Action in any competent Court.

Mining Communications.

LXXIII. If the working of any such Mines or Minerals under the Railway or Works, or within the above-mentioned Distance therefrom, be prevented as aforesaid by reason of apprehended Injury to the Railway, it shall be lawful for the respective Owners, Lessees, and Occupiers of such Mines, and whose Mines shall extend so as to be on both Sides of the Railway, to cut and make such and so many Airways, Headways, Gateways, or Water Levels through the Mines, Measures, or Strata, the working whereof shall be so prevented, as may be requisite to enable them to ventilate, drain, and work their said Mines; but no such Airway, Headway, Gateway, or Water Level shall be of greater Dimensions or Section than the prescribed Dimensions and Sections, and where no Dimensions shall be prescribed not greater than Eight Feet wide and Eight Feet high, nor shall the same be cut or made upon any Part of the Railway or Works, or so as to injure the same, or to impede the Passage thereon.

Company to make Compensation for Injury done to Mines;

LXXIV. The Company shall from Time to Time pay to the Owner, Lessee, or Occupier of any such Mines extending so as to be on both Sides of the Railway all such additional Expences and Losses as shall be incurred by such Owner, Lessee, or Occupier by reason of the Severance of the Lands lying over such Mines by the Railway, or of the continuous working of such Mines being interrupted as aforesaid, or by reason of the same being worked in such Manner and under such Restrictions as not to prejudice or injure the Railway, and for any Minerals not purchased by the Company which cannot be obtained by reason of making and maintaining the Railway; and if any Dispute or Question shall arise between the Company, and such Owner, Lessee, or Occupier as aforesaid, touching the Amount of such Losses or Expences, the same shall be settled as in other Cases of disputed Compensation.

and also for any Airway or other Work made necessary by the Railway.

LXXV. If any Loss or Damage be sustained by the Owner or Occupier of the Lands lying over any such Mines the working whereof shall have been so prevented as aforesaid (and not being the Owner, Lessee, or Occupier of such Mines), by reason of the making of any such Airway or other Work as aforesaid, which or any like Work would not have been necessary to be made but for the working of such Mines having been so prevented as aforesaid, the Company shall make full Compensation to such Owner or Occupier of the Surface Lands for the Loss or Damage so sustained by him.

Power to Company to enter and inspect the working of Mines.

LXXVI. For better ascertaining whether any such Mines are being worked or have been worked so as to damage the Railway or Works, it shall be lawful for the Company, after giving Twenty-four Hours Notice in Writing to enter upon any Lands through or near which the Railway passes wherein any such Mines are being worked or are supposed so to be, and to enter into and return from any such Mines or the Works connected therewith; and for that Purpose it shall be lawful for them to make use of any Apparatus or Machinery connected with such Mines belonging to the Owner, Lessee, or Occupier of such Mines upon Payment of the reasonable Cost of using and working the same, and of any Loss thereby occasioned to the working of the Mines, or otherwise, and to use all necessary Means for discovering the Distance from the Railway to the Parts of such Mines which are being worked or about so to be.

Penalty for Refusal to allow Inspection.

LXXVII. If any such Owner, Lessee, or Occupier of any such Mine shall refuse to allow any Person appointed by the Company for that Purpose to enter into and inspect any such Mines or Works in manner aforesaid, every Person so offending shall for every such Refusal forfeit to the Company a Sum not exceeding Twenty Pounds.

If Mines improperly worked, Supports to be made.

LXXVIII. If it appear that any such Mines have been worked contrary to the Provisions of this or the special Act, the Company may, if they think fit, give Notice to the Owner, Lessee, or Occupier thereof to construct such Supports or Works, and to adopt such Means as may be necessary or proper for making safe the Railway, and preventing Injury thereto; and if after such Notice any such Owner, Lessee, or Occupier do not forthwith proceed to construct the Works necessary for making safe the Railway, the Company may themselves construct such Works, and recover the Expence thereof from such Owner, Lessee, or Occupier by Action in any competent Court.

Passengers and Goods on Railway.

And with respect to the carrying of Passengers and Goods upon the Railway, and the Tolls to be taken thereon, be it enacted as follows:

Company to employ locomotive Power, Carriages, &c.

LXXIX. It shall be lawful for the Company to use and employ locomotive Engines or other moving Power, and Carriages and Waggons to be drawn or propelled thereby, and to carry and convey upon the Railway all such Passengers and Goods as shall be offered to them for that Purpose, and to make such reasonable Charges in respect thereof as they may from Time to Time determine upon, not exceeding the Tolls by the special Act authorized to be taken by them.

Company empowered to contract with other Companies.

LXXX. It shall be lawful for the Company from Time to Time to enter into any Contract with any other Company, being the Owners or Lessees or in possession of any other Railway, for the Passage over or along the Railway by the special Act authorized to be made of any Engines, Coaches, Waggons, or other Carriages of any other Company, or which shall pass over any other Line of Railway, or for the Passage over any other Line of Railway of any Engines, Coaches, Waggons, or other Carriages of the Company, or which shall pass over their Line of Railway, upon the Payment of such Tolls and under

under such Conditions and Restrictions as may be mutually agreed upon; and for the Purpose aforesaid it shall be lawful for the respective Parties to enter into any Contract for the Division or Apportionment of the Tolls to be taken upon their respective Railways.

Contracts not to affect Persons not Parties thereto.

LXXXI. Provided always, That no such Contract as aforesaid shall in any Manner alter, affect, increase, or diminish any of the Tolls which the respective Companies, Parties to such Contracts, shall for the Time being be respectively authorized and entitled to demand or receive from any Person or any other Company, but that all other Persons and Companies shall, notwithstanding any such Contract, be entitled to the Use and Benefit of any of the said Railways, upon the same Terms and Conditions, and on Payment of the same Tolls, as they would have been in case no such Contract had been entered into.

Company not to be liable to a greater Extent than Common Carriers.

LXXXII. Persons assessed for the Year ending the 5th April 1846 may compound on the Amount assessed, paying an additional Five per Cent.

III. And be it enacted, That every Person, not having compounded under the said former Acts, who is or shall be duly assessed for the Year ending on the Fifth Day of April One thousand eight hundred and forty-six to the Duties chargeable under the Acts relating to Assessed Taxes, may compound for the said Duties in respect of the Articles comprised in such Assessment and herein enumerated for the said Term of Five Years hereby limited, on Payment of the same Amount annually as is or shall be assessed on him for the said Year ending as aforesaid in respect of the said Articles herein enumerated, together with an additional annual Duty of One Shilling for every Twenty Shillings, and after that Rate for any greater or less Sum than Twenty Shillings of the said Amount so assessed, but no fractional Part of One Penny of the said additional Duty shall be payable.

Persons who have compounded under former Acts may renew their Compositions under this Act. Duties to be paid on renewed Compositions.

IV. And be it enacted, That every Person, except as herein-after is excepted, who hath compounded under the said former Acts for the Duties of Assessed Taxes by any Contract now in force may renew such Composition as to the Duties on the Articles herein enumerated and allowed by this Act to be compounded for; and the Commissioners of the Division in which such Person shall reside shall renew such Composition under the Provisions of this Act, whether the same was entered into with the Commissioners of the same Division or of any other Division; and the Amount of Duty charged and now payable on the same Articles respectively comprised in the said former Composition, together with the additional Per-centage Rate or several additional Per-centage Rates of Duty also charged therein under the said former Acts in respect of the said Articles, shall form the aggregate Amount on which the following additional Rates of Duty shall respectively be computed and charged for the Renewal of such Composition under this Act; (that is to say,) where the Person who hath compounded as aforesaid hath increased his Establishment of Servants, Horses, Carriages, or other Articles upon which such Composition hath been made, but to such an Extent only that the Duties chargeable thereon under an Assessment would not exceed by more than One Fourth the total Amount of the Sum now payable on such Contract of Composition, there shall be payable annually a further additional Duty of One Shilling for every Twenty Shillings, and after that Rate for any greater or less Sum than Twenty Shillings of said aggregate Amount; and where such Person hath increased such his Establishment beyond the Extent aforesaid, but so that the Duties chargeable thereon under an Assessment would not exceed double the Sum now payable on such Contract of Composition, there shall be payable annually a further additional Duty of Two Shillings for every Twenty Shillings, and after that Rate for any greater or less Sum than Twenty Shillings of the said aggregate Amount; but no fractional Part of One Penny of the said respective additional Duties shall be payable under this Act: Provided always, that where the Person who hath compounded as aforesaid hath not increased such his Establishment so that the Duties chargeable thereon under an Assessment would exceed the total Amount of the Sum now payable on his Contract of Composition, no additional Rate of Duty shall be payable under this Act for the Renewal of such Composition.

The additional Duty granted by 3 & 4 Vict. c. 17. to be charged under this Act.

V. Provided always, and be it enacted, That the additional Duty of Ten per Centum granted and now payable under an Act passed in the Third Year of Her Majesty's Reign, intituled An Act for granting to Her Majesty Duties of Customs, Excise, and Assessed Taxes, shall be commuted and charged upon and shall be payable over and above the gross aggregate Amount of all the Duties charged by this or any former Act or Acts upon or in respect of any Contract of Composition made or renewed under this Act.

Persons who, since compounding, have increased their Establishments more than double, or who have compounded on a less Duty than they ought to have done, may compound de novo.

VI. And be it enacted, That no Contract of Composition shall be renewed under this Act with any Person who, since entering into such Contract, hath increased his Establishment of Servants, Carriages, Horses, or other Articles upon which such Composition hath been made, so that the Duties chargeable on such Establishment, under an Assessment for the Year to commence from the Fifth Day of April One thousand eight hundred and forty-six, would amount to more than double the Sum now payable under such Contract, nor with any Person who hath compounded on a less Amount of Duty than ought to have been included in such Composition; but nevertheless it shall be lawful for any such Person, in either of the Cases aforesaid, after he shall have made a bonâ fide Return of the greatest Number of Servants, Carriages, Horses, and other Articles of his Establishment, according to the Laws in force relating to the Assessed Taxes, in order to an Assessment thereon for the Year to commence from the Fifth Day of April One thousand eight hundred and forty-six, and shall be duly assessed for that Year, to compound de novo on the Amount so assessed in respect of the Articles herein enumerated, together with the additional Duty chargeable on Contracts of Composition entered into under this Act.

VIII. Provided also, and be it enacted, That no Composition shall be entered into under this Act with any Person who shall have resided out of Great Britain before the passing of this Act for a temporary Purpose only, and who shall be assessable to the said Duties, for the Year ending the Fifth Day of April One thousand eight hundred and forty-six, to a less Amount than he was assessed before his Departure from Great Britain, nor shall any Composition be entered into or renewed with any Person who shall be residing out of the United Kingdom.

Persons having compounded and reduced their Establishments may compound de novo on the Assessment of 1846.

IX. And be it enacted, That if any Person having compounded under the said former Acts shall have reduced his Establishment so that he may be chargeable with a less Amount of Assessed Taxes for the Year commencing from the Fifth Day of April One thousand eight hundred and forty-six than the Amount of Duty compounded for, and shall by reason thereof be desirous of waiving the said Composition, and of compounding de novo, it shall be lawful for him so to do, upon giving Notice in Writing of such his Intention to the Surveyor of Taxes for the District in which such Person shall reside, on or before the said Fifth Day of April One thousand eight hundred and forty-six, and annexing to such Notice a full, true, and complete Return or List of the greatest Number of Articles chargeable with Duty kept and retained or employed by such Person after the Fifth Day of April One thousand eight hundred and forty-five, so that an Assessment may be duly made for the Year to commence from the Fifth Day of April One thousand eight hundred and forty-six on all the Articles chargeable for that Year; and it shall be lawful for the Commissioners to enter into Composition de novo with the Person giving the Notice aforesaid, upon the Amount of such Assessment as aforesaid, with the additional Duty chargeable thereon under this Act, as if such Person had not compounded under the said former Acts.

Persons who keep taxable Articles not included in a renewed Contract of Composition may compound for the same by a separate Contract.

X. And be it enacted, That where any Person who hath compounded under the said former Acts, and shall renew such Composition under this Act, shall have kept or employed or used any taxable Articles of a Description allowed to be compounded for under this Act, but of a different Description from those included in such his former Composition, and for which Articles he is or will be liable to be assessed for the Year ending the Fifth Day of April One thousand eight hundred and forty-six, it shall be lawful for such Person, upon being duly assessed for such Articles not included in the renewed Composition, to compound for the same by a separate and distinct Contract, on the same Terms and in the like Manner as any Person who hath not compounded under the said former Acts may enter into an original Contract of Composition under this Act.

XI. And be it enacted, That every Person entering into or renewing any Composition under this Act shall be entitled to the like Privileges of setting up or retaining, and keeping, using, or employing any additional Articles of the same Description, and chargeable under the same Schedule and Number of the Schedule, or with the same or a lower Rate of Duty as the Articles compounded for composing his Establishment, and to and for his own Use but not otherwise, as the Persons compounding under the said former Acts are now by Law entitled to, and shall be exempt from all Assessments on such additional Articles of his Establishment during the Term mentioned in such Composition, save and except that no Person who shall compound or renew any Composition under this Act for any Dog chargeable with a less Rate of Duty than Fourteen Shillings shall be entitled to keep free of Duty any Hound, XII. And be it enacted, That it shall be lawful for every Person who shall enter into or renew any Composition under this Act in respect of any Male Person employed in any of the Capacities described in and chargeable with Duty under the said Schedule marked (C.) No. 1. of the said respective Acts of the Forty-eighth and Fifty-second Years of King George the Third to retain, keep, and employ free of Duty any other Male Person or Number of Male Persons employed in the same Capacity, or in any other Capacity chargeable with the same or any lower Rate of Duty, and allowed by this Act to be compounded for; and it shall be lawful for every Person who shall enter into or renew any Composition as aforesaid in respect of any Carriage of whatever Description chargeable with Duty, and allowed by this Act to be compounded for, to set up, keep, and use free of Duty any other Carriage or Number of Carriages of the same Description, or of any other Description chargeable with the same or a lower Rate of Duty, and allowed to be compounded for as aforesaid; and it shall also be lawful for every Person who shall enter into or renew any Composition as aforesaid in respect of any Horse chargeable with Duty under the Schedule marked (E.) No. 1. of the said respective Acts to keep and use free of Duty any additional Number of Horses chargeable with Duty under the same Schedule, or any Horse or Horses chargeable with any lower Rate of Duty, and allowed to be compounded for as aforesaid.

Persons assessed or having compounded for a Carriage at a lower Rate of Duty entitled to substitute for it in their Composition Contract a Carriage at a higher Rate.

XIII. And be it enacted, That where any Person intending to compound under this Act is or shall be assessed for the Year ending on the Fifth Day of April One thousand eight hundred and forty-six in respect of any Carriage with Four Wheels, and drawn by One Horse only, or any Carriage of whatever Description chargeable with the same Rate of Duty as the last-mentioned Carriage or a lower Rate, and also where any Person intending to renew any Contract of Composition now in force hath by such Contract compounded for any such Carriage as aforesaid, and where any such Person in either of the Cases aforesaid, after the Fifth Day of April One thousand eight hundred and forty-five, shall have set up, kept, or used, or shall intend to set up, keep, or use, any Carriage chargeable with a higher Rate of Duty than that for which he shall have been so assessed or hath compounded as aforesaid, it shall be lawful for him, if he shall think fit, to compound or to renew his Composition under this Act for a Carriage at such higher Rate, upon giving Notice thereof in Writing to the Surveyor of the Division in which he shall reside within the Time herein limited for giving Notice of Intention to compound, and thereupon such Carriage at the higher Rate of Duty shall be substituted in the Contract to be entered into under this Act for the making or Renewal of such Composition for and in lieu of One such Carriage at the lower Rate; and where any Person who shall have entered into any Contract for the making or Renewal of any Composition under this Act in respect of any Carriage with Four Wheels, and drawn by One Horse only, or any Carriage of whatever Description chargeable with the same Rate of Duty as such last-mentioned Carriage or a lower Rate, and such Person at any Time after the entering into such Contract shall be desirous of setting up and keeping under such Composition any Carriage chargeable with a higher Rate of Duty, such Person shall give Notice thereof to the Surveyor of the Division in which he shall reside One Calendar Month at least before setting up or keeping or using such Carriage chargeable with the higher Rate of Duty; and the said Surveyor shall transmit such Notice to the Clerk of the Commissioners acting for the said Division, and such Clerk shall cause to be endorsed upon each Part of the Contract of Composition, and to be signed by Two of the said Commissioners, a Certificate of such Notice, and of the additional Duty to be paid on such Contract in that Behalf; (that is to say,) there shall be payable thereon annually, during the Remainder of the Term of Composition, the Difference between the Rate of Duty chargeable on one such Carriage which shall have been compounded for as aforesaid and the Rate of Duty chargeable on the Carriage intended to be set up, kept, and used as aforesaid, together with the several additional Per-centage Rates of Duty payable under the said Contract, to be computed upon such Difference; and such additional Duties shall be payable for the whole Year, commencing from the Fifth Day of April next preceding the Date of such endorsed Certificate, and shall be paid during all the Remainder of the Term of Composition by half-yearly Instalments, and be collected, levied, and recovered in like Manner as if the same had been comprised in the Body of the said Contract; and after such Notice, and the Endorsement of such Certificate as aforesaid, it shall be lawful for the Person compounding as aforesaid to set up, keep, and use any such Carriage as aforesaid, with the like Privileges and Immunities during the Remainder of the said Term as he would have been entitled to if he had originally compounded in respect of such Carriage chargeable at the higher Rate of Duty.

but nothing therein contained was to extend or be construed to extend to authorize any Persons exceeding Six in Number, or any Bodies Politic or Corporate, residing or having their Establishment or House of Business within the Distance of Fifty Miles from Dublin, to make or issue any Bill or Bills of Exchange, or any Promissory Note or Notes, contrary to the Provisions of the said in part recited Act of the Twenty-first and Twenty-second Years of the Reign of King George the Third: And whereas by another Act passed in the Sixth Year of the Reign of His Majesty King George the Fourth, intituled An Act for the better Regulation of Copartnerships of certain Bankers in Ireland, and by another Act passed in the First Year of the Reign of His late Majesty King William the Fourth, intituled An Act to explain Two Acts of His present Majesty, for establishing an Agreement with the Governor and Company of the Bank of Ireland for advancing the Sum of Five hundred thousand Pounds Irish Currency, and for the better Regulation of Copartnerships of certain Bankers in Ireland, such Copartnerships of Bankers established at Places beyond the Distance of Fifty Miles from Dublin were authorized to transact certain Matters of Business by Agents in Dublin or within the Distance of Fifty Miles thereof: And whereas the said Governor and Company at different Times advanced, for the Public Service, to His Majesty King George the Third, the several Sums of Six hundred thousand Pounds, Five hundred thousand Pounds, and One million two hundred and fifty thousand Pounds, late Irish Currency, and in respect thereof the said Governor and Company were entitled to certain Annuities payable at the Receipt of the Exchequer in Dublin: And whereas by an Act passed in the Forty-eighth Year of the Reign of His said Majesty King George the Third, intituled An Act for further extending the Provisions of several Acts for establishing the Bank of Ireland, and for empowering the Governor and Company of the said Bank to advance the Sum of One million two hundred and fifty thousand Pounds Irish Currency towards the Service of the Year One thousand eight hundred and eight, it was amongst other things enacted, that at any Time after the First Day of January in the Year of our Lord One thousand eight hundred and thirty-seven, upon Twelve Months Notice, to be published in the Dublin Gazette by Order of the Lord Lieutenant or other Chief Governor or Governors of Ireland, the said Corporation of the Bank was to be dissolved; 'bestow any Church, Vicarage, or other Ecclesiastical Benefice in Ireland: And whereas in consequence 'of the Provisions of the said Acts numerous Actions of Quare impedit and Proceedings have been 'brought and instituted, and are now depending, for the Purpose of determining the Right of Presenta- 'tion to divers Ecclesiastical Benefices and Preferments in Ireland, by Persons whose Claims to 'exercise such Right would but for the instituting of such Proceedings have been barred by the 'Provisions of the aforesaid Acts: And whereas numerous Actions and Proceedings have been brought 'and instituted and are now pending against Archbishops and Bishops in Ireland, for the Recovery of 'Advowsons and Rights of Presentation to Ecclesiastical Benefices and Preferments in their Dioceses 'the Patronage whereof has been for long and uninterrupted Periods exercised by them and their 'Predecessors in right of their Sees, and the said Archbishops and Bishops have been and will be put 'to heavy Expences in preparing to defend and in defending in the said Actions and Proceedings their 'Rights of Patronage for themselves and their Successors; and it is just and expedient that they 'should be enabled to charge such Expences on the Estates of their respective Sees, subject to the 'Regulations herein-after provided:' Be it enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That every Archbishop and Bishop in Ireland, Defendant in any Action of Quare impedit or other Action or Suit already brought or instituted against him, and which was pending on the Sixteenth Day of June One thousand eight hundred and forty-five, or on which any Writ of Error or Appeal was then pending, for the Recovery of the Right of Presentation to or Patronage of any Ecclesiastical Benefice or Preferment the Patronage whereof has heretofore been enjoyed by him or his Predecessors in right of his See or of any See united thereto, shall be entitled to charge the Amount of all Costs reasonably incurred by him in or about the Preparation and Conduct of and consequent upon his Defence to such Action or Suit, including, if Occasion shall be, his Costs incidental to any Appeal or Writ of Error from any Judgment therein, (and which Costs respectively he shall not be enabled to recover from the Plaintiff or Plaintiffs in such Action, Suit, or Appeal, or Writ of Error, with the Costs also of creating any Securities hereby authorized to be made,) upon the Estates or other Revenues of his See, in manner herein-after directed; provided that a Judge before whom such Action or Suit shall have been first tried, or by whom the same shall have been first determined, shall certify by Writing under his Hand, to be deposited and preserved in the Registry of the Diocese, that such Archbishop or Bishop had probable Cause for defending such Action or Suit, and that he ought to be allowed to charge his Costs under the Provisions of this Act; and that the presiding Judge of any Court of Error, or the Speaker of the House of Lords in Cases of Appeal or Writ of Error there prosecuted, shall in like manner certify that there was good Ground of prosecuting or defending such Appeal or Writ of Error; and if any such Action or Suit, Appeal or Writ of Error, shall be dismissed, abated, or discontinued before any Trial or Determination thereof, or the Plaintiff shall be nonsuited therein, then a Certificate, signed by a Judge of the Court in which such Action or Suit has been brought or instituted, shall be effectual for the Purposes aforesaid; and that no Judge shall be precluded from considering an Archbishop or Bishop, grounding his Defence to any such Action or Suit upon previous Presentations or Collations only, to have had probable Cause for such Defence; provided also, that the Amount of Costs to be charged under the Authority of this Act shall be determined and certified by some Officer to whom the Taxation of Costs between the Plaintiff and Defendant in such Action or Suit shall or would be referrable, and that his Certificate shall be also deposited in the Registry of the Diocese.

Every Archbishop and Bishop, Defendant in Actions for Right of Patronage, may charge the Costs of such Actions on the Revenues of the See.

Judge to certify for Costs.

II. And be it enacted, That after such Certificates as aforesaid shall have been obtained by any Archbishop or Bishop, and deposited in the Registry of his Diocese, (which Certificates shall, for the Purposes of the Securities hereby authorized to be made, be conclusive Evidence of his Authority to raise the Amount certified by such Taxing Officer to be due to him,) it shall be lawful for him to raise, by way of Loans, for his Benefit and Reimbursement, the same Amount, or any Part or Parts thereof, and all Costs incident to the Execution of these present Authorities, from any Persons or Corporations willing to advance the same, and, as a Security for the Money to be so raised, by any Deed or Deeds, duly sealed and delivered by him, and also registered in the Registry of his Diocese, to demise any Messuages, Lands, Towns, Tenements, Tithes, Rents-charge, or other Rents and Hereditaments of or belonging to his See, to the Persons or Corporations advancing the same Money, or to such Person or Persons as they respectively may appoint, by way of Mortgage, for any Term or Terms of Years, subject to proper Provisions for the Cesser of every such Term on Payment of the Principal Money to be so borrowed, with Interest thereon, to the Persons or Corporations who shall advance the same, their Executors, Administrators, Successors, or Assigns, at the Times and in the Manner herein-after mentioned; (that is to say,) the Interest thereof, or of so much thereof as shall from Time to Time remain unpaid, at such Rate as shall be agreed upon, to be paid on the half-yearly Days to be therein appointed, and One Thirtieth Part of the Principal Money at the End of the Third Year from the Determination of the Action or Suit, or the Cesser of the Proceedings with respect to which the said Costs shall have been incurred, and a like Thirtieth Part of the Principal Money at the End of each of the succeeding Twenty-nine Years, which Mortgage or Mortgages shall bind every succeeding Archbishop or Bishop of the same See, until the Principal Money and Interest thereby secured shall be paid off and discharged, as fully and effectually as if such Successor had made or executed the same.

On obtaining Judge's Certificate, Money for defraying Costs, &c. may be raised by Mortgage.

III. And be it enacted, That every such Mortgage shall contain a Covenant from the Archbishop or Bishop making the same, for himself, his Heirs, Executors, and Administrators, to pay and keep down so much of the said Principal Money and Interest as shall become payable upon such Mortgage or Mortgages during his Continuance in his said See. ment of Principal and Interest.

Mortgage to contain a Covenant for Pay-

IV. And be it enacted, That it shall not be lawful for any Mortgagee under the foregoing Authorities to enter into the Possession of the mortgaged Hereditaments or any Part thereof until some Principal Money or Interest secured by any such Mortgage or Mortgages shall be in arrear and unpaid for more than Forty Days after the same respectively shall have become due, but that when and so often as there shall be any such Arrear it shall be lawful for the Mortgagee or Mortgagees, his, her, or their Executors, Administrators, Successors, or Assigns, to recover the Monies so in arrear, together with the Costs and Charges attending the Recovery thereof, upon or out of the mortgaged Hereditaments, by Distress and Sale, in such Manner as Rent Service may by Law be recovered, or by entering on and receiving the Rents and Profits of the same Hereditaments, until full Payment of the same Arrears and Costs and Charges respectively. For Recovery of Monies due on Mortgages.

V. Provided always, and be it enacted, That no Mortgagee or Mortgagees of the Lands or Possessions of any See under the foregoing Provisions shall after any Avoidance thereof be entitled to recover from the Hereditaments therein comprised more than One Year's Interest accrued before such Avoidance upon any Principal Sum due thereon, or more than One Instalment of Principal Money which shall have previously fallen due. No Mortgagee to recover more than One Year's Interest, &c. after Avoidance.

VI. And be it enacted, That every Archbishop and Bishop making any such Mortgage as aforesaid, and his Successors, shall pay the Principal and Interest Monies thereby secured at the Times and in manner thereby appointed for the said Purposes, or so much of the same Monies respectively as shall from Time to Time be due; and that upon every Avoidance which shall happen of the See during the Subsistence of any such Security the Archbishop or Bishop avoiding the same, his Heirs, Executors, or Administrators, shall pay so much of the accruing half-yearly Payment of Interest, if any, not actually due at the Time of such Avoidance, as shall be in proportion to the Time which at such Avoidance shall have elapsed of the current Half Year, and, in case such Avoidance shall happen in any Year at the End of which any Instalment of the said Principal Sum shall be due, shall also pay so much of the annual Instalment then accruing of the said Principal Sum as shall be in proportion to the Part which at such Avoidance shall have elapsed of the current Year of the Security: Provided also, that it shall be lawful for the Archbishop or Bishop who shall be entitled to charge any such Principal Monies as aforesaid on the Security of the Possessions of his See, in lieu of borrowing the same, to grant to any Trustee or Trustees for himself any such Security for the same Monies, and Interest thereon at any Rate not exceeding Four Pounds per Centum per Annum, as he might have granted to any Person or Corporation advancing the same Monies; and that if any Archbishop or Bishop entitled to charge any Principal and Interest Monies upon the Possessions of his See under the Provisions of this Act shall die without having fully exercised or relinquished his Power, and before the Expiration of One Year from the Time at which the same Power shall have arisen, it shall be lawful for his Executors or Administrators to exercise the same Power to the like Extent as he might himself have done if still living, for the Benefit and in Increase of his Personal Estate; and that if any such Archbishop or Bishop shall die within Three Calendar Months next after the Determination of any Action or Suit, or the Cesser of the Proceedings in or with reference to which he shall have incurred any Costs, which, if living, and having obtained such Certificates as aforesaid, he might have charged on the Possessions of his See, then and in such Case his Executors or Administrators shall be at liberty to apply for such Certificates, and after obtaining the same to create any such Security for the Benefit of his Personal Estate as he might himself have created for the Amount of such Costs and Interest thereon. Mortgages not to interfere with Power of leasing.

VIII. 'And whereas many such Writs of Quare impedit have been sued out and Proceedings instituted 'by Persons who, under Family Settlement or otherwise, would only be entitled to a Life Estate or other 'limited Interest in the Advowsons or Right of Presentation to the Ecclesiastical Benefices to recover 'which the said Writs have been sued out and Proceedings instituted; and it is just and expedient that the 'said Plaintiffs in such Actions should be enabled, under certain Restrictions, to charge the reasonable 'Costs and Expences incurred by them in prosecuting such Claims upon the Estates of those who would 'be entitled in remainder to such Advowsons or Right of Presentation;' be it enacted, That it shall and may be lawful for every Person who has now sued out any Writ of Quare impedit or instituted or brought any other Action or Suit to recover the Right of Presentation to or Patronage of any Ecclesiastical Benefice or Preferment in Ireland, and who shall in such Action or Suit finally establish his Right to such Advowson, Presentation, or Patronage, and who shall be by any Family Settlement or otherwise entitled only to a Life Estate or other limited Interest in or to the Advowson or Right of Presentation or Patronage in respect of which he shall so establish his Right, shall be entitled to charge all such Costs as he shall have incurred in the bringing and prosecuting of such Actions, and all Costs incidental thereto, including the Costs incident to any Appeal or Writ of Error therein, and over and above all such Costs as he shall be entitled to recover from the Defendant or Defendants in such Action, upon the Fee and Inheritance of the said Advowson, Right of Presentation, or Patronage, and also upon the Remainder, Fee, or Inheritance of all Lands, Tenements, and Hereditaments of which he shall be seised Who may charge Costs of Quare impedit.

And be it enacted, That it shall be lawful for any Plaintiff having obtained any Certificate as aforesaid, and which Certificate shall be deposited in the Office for registering Deeds in Ireland, by Deed under his Hand and Seal to charge the said Lands, Tenements, and Hereditaments which by this Act he is authorized to charge with the Amount specified in such Certificate; and such Charge, subject to all prior Incumbrances affecting the said Lands, Tenements, or Hereditaments, shall, on being registered in the Office for registering Deeds in Ireland, pursuant to the Statutes for that Purpose, be as valid and effectual to all Intents and Purposes as if made by a Person having the absolute Interest in the said Lands, Tenements, and Hereditaments; and that it shall and may be lawful for the said Plaintiff to exercise such Power of charging said Lands in favour of any Person that he may think fit, either as a Security for the Loan of Money or otherwise; and that such Charge so created shall bear Interest from the Day of the Registration of the Deed creating same, at a Rate not exceeding Five Pounds per Centum per Annum, and shall be capable of being assigned and transferred.

Liability of such Lands, &c. limited.

X. Provided always, and be it enacted, That it shall not be lawful for any Person entitled to the said Charge to proceed to raise the Amount of the same by Sale of any of the Lands, Tenements, and Hereditaments upon which same shall be so charged, during the Continuance of the Life Estate of the Person so creating said Charge, nor shall it be lawful for such Person, at the Determination of the said Life Estate, to charge more than One Year's Arrear of Interest accruing during the said Life Estate, upon the Inheritance or Remainder in the said Lands; and that it shall be lawful for the Person entitled to such Charge, whenever One Year's Interest shall be in arrear, to apply by Petition, verified by Affidavit, to a Court of Equity in Ireland, stating the Facts, and it shall and may be lawful for such Court of Equity, on being satisfied that such Charge has been rightly created under this Act, and that One Year's Interest is due thereon, to appoint a Receiver over all or a competent Part of the Lands, Tenements, and Hereditaments included in such Charge, for the Purpose of paying such Interest, or if a Receiver be already appointed over such Lands, then to extend the said Receiver to the Matter of such Petition.

Plaintiff may charge his Costs, &c. if nonsuited, provided the Judge certifies that they ought to be charged.

County Roads Board for Carmarthen may carry out a certain Agreement under 11 G. 4. & 1 W. 4. c. 16.

XII. 'And whereas under and by virtue of an Act passed in the Eleventh Year of the Reign of 'King George the Fourth, intituled An Act for inclosing Lands within the several Parishes of Kidwelly, 'St. Mary Kidwelly, Saint Ishmael, and Pembrey, in the County of Carmarthen, a certain Agreement 'was entered into between the Commissioner for carrying out the said Inclosure and the Trustees of 'the Kidwelly Trust, for constructing a Line of Turnpike Road along a certain Embankment across the 'Gwendraeth Fawr River in the said County: And whereas such Agreement has been only partially

'carried

'carried into effect: And whereas the Act constituting the said Kidwelly Trust has been recently 'repealed under the Powers conferred by the herein-before first-recited Act: And whereas it is 'expedient to vest in the County Roads Board of the said County Power to complete and carry out the 'said Agreement in like Manner as it might have been had the said Kidwelly Trust continued to exist;' be it therefore enacted, That the said County Roads Board of the said County may, if they shall think it expedient so to do, complete and carry out the said Agreement with the Commissioner acting under the Kidwelly Inclosure Act, in like Manner as the Trustees of the Kidwelly Turnpike Trust might have done; and that such Road along the said Embankment, when completed, shall become and be a Part of the County Roads of the said County of Carmarthen.

County Roads Boards may dispose of their vested Interest in Toll Houses.

XIII. 'And whereas the carrying into execution the said recited Act will cause several of the Toll 'Houses now or lately vested in the Trustees of the several Turnpike Trusts in South Wales to become 'useless for the Purpose of Toll Houses: And whereas the pulling down and disposing of the same, 'according to the Provisions of general Turnpike Acts, would be attended with great Loss to the 'several Counties in which the same are situate, and many of the said Toll Houses may be disposed of 'and left standing without Injury to any Parties;' be it therefore enacted, That the several County Roads Boards in South Wales in whom any Freehold or other Interest in such Toll Houses may have become vested may make Sale of or otherwise dispose of such Interest, any thing in the said general Turnpike Acts or in any other Act to the contrary notwithstanding: Provided always, that the said County Roads Boards, before they shall proceed to dispose of any such Toll House shall cause their Interest in the same to be valued by some indifferent Surveyor; and in case their Interest in the same shall be any Interest less than Freehold such Interest shall be first offered at the Price which the said Surveyor shall have put upon the same, to the Person to whom such Freehold shall belong, or if their Interest in the same shall be a Freehold Interest, then to the Owner of the Lands surrounding such Toll House, or to the Lord of the Manor, in case such Toll House shall have been built upon the Waste; and in case any of the said Parties respectively to whom such Right of Pre-emption may belong shall not within One Month after such Offer made consent to purchase the same, or in case such Toll House shall adjoin the Lands of Two or more Owners, or shall not stand upon the Waste of any Manor, then the County Roads Boards may proceed to dispose of the same by Auction, or in such other Manner as they shall deem most expedient.

XIV. And be it enacted, That the Words used in this Act shall be construed according to the same Rules of Interpretation as are prescribed in the said recited Act.

'WHEREAS, by the Laws now in force, Goods the Produce or Manufacture of the Islands of Guernsey, Jersey, Alderney, and Sark may be imported from the said Islands respectively into the United Kingdom, on Payment of such Proportion of such Duties as fairly countervail any Duties of Excise payable on the like Goods the Produce of the Part of the United Kingdom into which they are imported: And whereas the Duties of Excise payable on plain British Spirits the Produce of or distilled in England is Seven Shillings and Ten-pence upon every Gallon of such Spirits of the Strength of Hydrometer Proof, and Three Shillings and Eight-pence upon every Gallon of the like Spirits at the same Strength distilled in Scotland, and Two Shillings and Eight-pence upon every Gallon of the like Spirits at the same Strength distilled in Ireland; but by reason of the Duty of Excise on Malt, being Materials from which such Spirits are made, and of the Duty of Excise on Licences to Distillers and Makers of Malt and Spirits, the Duties before-mentioned cannot be taken as fair countervailing Duties on the like Spirits the Produce or Manufacture of the said Islands imported into any of the Parts of the United Kingdom aforesaid, and it is necessary therefore to determine the same: And whereas plain British Spirits, when imported from one of the said Parts of the United Kingdom into another, must be removed under the Provisions of the Laws of Excise, and subject, when so removed, to be dealt with in all respects as if the same had been distilled in the Country into which the same have been so removed: And whereas Spirits denominated British Brandy and British Compounds, distilled or made in any Part of the United Kingdom, cannot be so removed, and there are no Duties of Excise payable thereon on which any countervailing Duty can be fairly estimated:' Be it enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That from and after the passing of this Act the countervailing Duties to be charged on all Spirits of the Nature or Quality of plain British Spirits, manufactured or distilled in the Islands of Guernsey, Jersey, Alderney, or Sark, and imported from any of the said Islands into the United Kingdom, shall be as follows; (that is to say,)

Countervailing Duties imposed by this Act.

For and upon every Gallon of such Spirits of the Strength of Hydrometer Proof, as ascertained by Sikes' Hydrometer, imported into England, the Sum of Nine Shillings, and so in proportion for any greater Degree of Strength, or any greater or less Quantity:

For and upon every Gallon of such Spirits of the like Strength imported into Scotland, the Sum of Four Shillings and Ten-pence, and so in proportion for any greater Degree of Strength or any greater or less Quantity:

For and upon every Gallon of such Spirits imported into Ireland, the Sum of Three Shillings and Ten-pence, and so in proportion for any greater Degree of Strength or any greater or less Quantity.

Duties to be under the Management of the Commissioners of Excise.

II. And be it enacted, That the said several countervailing Duties shall be under the Management of the Commissioners of Excise, and shall be collected, paid, and accounted for as Duties of Excise, and in the same Manner as any Duties of Excise now imposed on plain British Spirits manufactured in England, Scotland, or Ireland respectively, and removed from any one of the said Parts of the United Kingdom into any other, are directed to be collected, paid, and accounted for when made payable in that Part of the United Kingdom into which such Spirits are so removed, under any Law or Laws of Excise; and the general and special Provisions, Clauses, Enactments, Regulations, Pains, Penalties, and Forfeitures contained in any Act or Acts relating to the Collection and Management of the Revenue of Excise shall, so far as the same are applicable thereto, be applied to the Collection and Management of the said countervailing Duties and to this Act.

An Act to stay Execution of Judgment for Misdemeanors upon giving Bail in Error.

And be it enacted, That where Judgment upon such Writ of Error shall be affirmed, and Imprisonment shall have been adjudged, the Period for its Continuance in pursuance of such Judgment, if such Imprisonment shall not have commenced under such Execution, shall be reckoned to begin from the Day when such Defendant or Defendants shall be in actual Custody under such Judgment; and if the Defendant or Defendants shall have been discharged from Imprisonment in manner herein-before provided, such Defendant or Defendants shall be liable to be imprisoned for such further Period as, with the Time during which such Defendant or Defendants may already have been imprisoned under such Execution, shall be equal to the Period for which such Defendant or Defendants was or were so adjudged to be imprisoned as aforesaid.

IV. And

IV. And be it declared and enacted, That when the Judgment shall have been for Payment of a Fine, and Imprisonment until such Fine be paid, either with or without Imprisonment for a certain Time, and the Defendant or Defendants shall have paid the Fine, or the same or any Part thereof shall have been levied, and shall have been received back, under the Provisions herein-before contained, and the Judgment upon Writ of Error brought shall be affirmed, the Defendant or Defendants shall not be entitled, by reason of such Payment as aforesaid, to be discharged from Imprisonment, notwithstanding the Expiration of any certain Time of Imprisonment for which the original Judgment shall have been given, until the Fine shall be again paid. CAP. LXIX.

An Act to amend an Act of the Sixth Year of Her present Majesty, for promoting the Drainage of Lands, and Improvement of Navigation and Water Power in connexion with such Drainage, in Ireland. [31st July 1845.]

'WHEREAS by an Act passed in the Sixth Year of the Reign of Her present Majesty, intituled An Act to promote the Drainage of Lands, and Improvement of Navigation and Water Power in connexion with such Drainage, in Ireland, it is amongst other things enacted, that if the Proprietors of Two Thirds or more in Extent of the Lands proposed to be drained or improved by Drainage under the Provisions of the said Act should have assented in Writing to the Execution of the proposed Works, the Commissioners acting in execution of said Act should make and sign a Declaration describing the Lands proposed to be drained or improved, and declaring the then actual Value thereof, and the Increase in such Value by means of the proposed Works, and the Proportion in which such Lands should be chargeable towards the Expence of the proposed Works, such Proportion being fixed according to such actual Value and such estimated Increase as aforesaid, and also stating the several other Matters and Things in and by the said Act authorized and required; and it is by the said Act further enacted, that it should and might be lawful for the Commissioners appointed under the said Act, from Time to Time as Occasion should require, to borrow and take up at Interest any Sum or Sums of Money required for defraying the Costs, Charges, and Expences to be incurred by them in the Execution of any Works for the Drainage and Improvement of any Land, or the Navigation of any River, or the Formation of any Reservoir under or by virtue of the said Act, and that the Repayment of such Sum or Sums of Money, with Interest at a Rate not exceeding Five Pounds per Centum per Annum, should be secured to the Party lending the same upon the Monies accruing to the said Commissioners under or by virtue of the Award to be made by the said Commissioners as in the said Act mentioned; and it is in and by the said Act further enacted, that as soon as conveniently might be after any Works for the Drainage or Improvement of any Land or the Navigation of any River under the said Act, or any other Work by the said Act authorized, should have been completed, the Commissioners should draw up an Award or Instrument in Writing in the Manner and Form therein particularly mentioned and described, and that the respective Sums of Money which by the Award of the said Commissioners should be specified as the Proportions or Contributions payable in respect of the several Parcels or Portions of the Land drained or improved by Drainage, or by any Works under the said Act, towards the total Amount of the Sums expended in and about such Drainage or Improvements, as aforesaid, with Interest for such respective Sums of Money at a Rate not exceeding Five Pounds per Centum per Annum from the Date of such Award, should be charged on such several Parcels or Portions of the Land so drained or improved as aforesaid, and that in preference to and with Priority over all Incumbrances on such Land: Provided nevertheless, that any Quit or Chief Rent issuing thereout, or other Incumbrance thereon, previously to the Date of the said Award, should have Priority to such Charges to the Extent of the Value of such Land before the Improvements were effected, but no further; and the same respective Sums of Money, with such Interest for the same as aforesaid, should also be charged upon so much of any other Land situate within One Mile of any Part of the Lands so drained or improved, and settled with the Lands so drained or improved to the same Uses, Intents, and Purposes, by virtue of Limitations contained in the same Instrument or the same Set of Instruments, as the said Commissioners should by their said Award, or any Instrument under their Hands and Seals enrolled in the Rolls Office, direct, limit, and appoint, having regard to the Sufficiency of the said Lands to satisfy and secure the Charge thereon, but subject, as to such other Land, to the full Amount of all Incumbrances affecting the same prior to the Date of the said Award: And whereas Applications have been made to the said Commissioners for the Drainage of Land, and the Improvement of Navigation and Water Power of several Rivers and Lakes, in Ireland, and Undertakings and Works for those Purposes are now in progress under the Direction of the said Commissioners: And whereas it is expedient and just that the Monies to be charged upon Lands by 5 & 6 Vict. c. 89.

'any such Award as aforesaid shall take Priority and have Effect as to such Lands from the Date of the 'said Declaration in and by the said Act authorized, instead of the Date of the said Award; and for 'the more effectual Attainment and Extension of the Benefits likely to arise from the said Act it is 'expedient to facilitate the raising of Monies for the Purposes thereof, and to amend the said Acts in 'certain other respects as herein-after mentioned:' Be it therefore enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That in the Case of all Loans to be effected and Declarations to be made by the said Commissioners after the passing of this Act, under the Provision of said recited Act or this Act, the respective Sums of Money which, by the Award to be made by the said Commissioners, shall be specified as the Proportions or Contributions payable in respect of the several Parcels or Portions of the Land drained or improved by Drainage, or by any Works under the said Act or this Act, towards the total Amount of the Sums expended in and about such Drainage or Improvements as aforesaid, with Interest for such respective Sums of Money at the Rate not exceeding Five Pounds per Centum per Annum, shall from the Date of such Declaration be charged on such several Parcels or Portions of the Land so drained or improved as aforesaid, and that in preference to and with Priority over all Incumbrances on such Land, save only that any Quit or Chief Rent issuing thereout, or other Incumbrance thereon, previously to the Date of the Memorandum of the Registry of such Declaration, as by this Act authorized and directed to be made by the said Commissioners, shall have Priority to such respective Sums of Money so charged to the Extent of the Value (as stated by the said Commissioners in any such Declaration) of such Land before the Improvements were commenced, but no further; and the same respective Sums of Money, with such Interest for the same as aforesaid, shall also be charged upon so much of any other Land situate within One Mile of any Part of the Lands so drained or improved, and settled with the Lands so drained or improved, to the same Uses, Intents, and Purposes, by virtue of Limitations contained in the same Instrument or the same Set of Instruments, as the said Commissioners shall by the said Award, or any Instrument under their Hands and Seals, and enrolled in the Rolls Office, direct, limit, and appoint, having regard to the Sufficiency of the said Lands to satisfy and secure the Charge thereon, but subject, as to such other Land as aforesaid, not being Part of the Lands so drained or improved, to the full Amount of all Incumbrances affecting the same prior to the Registry of the Memorandum of such Declaration.

Apportioned Expences of Works to be charged on Lands.

Provisions in recited Act as to Charge on Lands to apply to Land of the same Proprietor.

II. And be it enacted, That the Provisions in the said recited Act and this Act contained relating to the Charge of any Monies or Interest on Land situate within One Mile of any Part of the Land drained or improved shall be deemed and construed to extend and apply to all Land belonging to the same Proprietor, as the Land so drained or improved, situate within One Mile of any Part of the Lands so drained and improved, for all his Estate and Interest existing at the Time of such Declaration of the said Commissioners as aforesaid.

The Proprietors may give other Security in lieu of the Lands so situate.

III. And be it enacted, That if any Proprietor shall prefer to give other Security in lieu of the Lands so situate within One Mile of the Lands drained or improved as aforesaid, such Security shall be given within a Time to be fixed by public Notice by the Commissioners previous to the Date of the Declaration aforesaid, any thing in the said Act to the contrary notwithstanding.

The whole of the Lands chargeable shall be described in the Declaration.

IV. And be it enacted, That the Extent of the whole of the Land or Premises which, under the Provisions of said Act or this Act, may become chargeable with the Monies expended in pursuance of the Provisions thereof, shall be entered, stated, or described in every such Declaration, as herein-before mentioned, to be made by said Commissioners; and when such Declaration shall be finally settled a Copy thereof shall be printed, and deposited with the Clerk of the Peace, as in said Act directed.

The Commissioners to cause Memorandum of Declaration to be drawn up and registered.

V. And be it enacted, That so soon as conveniently may be after the making of any such Declaration as in and by the said recited Act or this Act authorized as aforesaid the said Commissioners shall draw up a Memorandum or Instrument in Writing, setting forth therein the several Lands (with the County, County of a City or Town, and Barony or Parish in which the same may be situate) which shall be the Subject of or contained in such Declaration, and also setting forth the Proprietors of such Lands respectively, and which Memorandum or Instrument shall be signed and sealed by the said Commissioners, and be in the Form in the Schedule marked (B.) to this Act annexed, or as near thereto as the Circumstances of the Case will admit; and the said Commissioners shall at the same Time sign and seal a Memorial of such Memorandum or Instrument, directed to the Registrar for registering Deeds, Conveyances, and Wills in Ireland, and cause the Memorial of such Instrument to be registered in the Office for Registry of Deeds in the City of Dublin; and the Registrar of said Registry Office, his and their Assistant, Deputies, and other Officers, are hereby authorized and required to receive and register the same in such and the same Manner as any Deeds or Instruments are registered in said Office, and enter all such Memorials of such Instruments in the Abstract Books and Indexes of or relating to Memorials registered and kept in the said Offices, subject to the Payment of such Fees as may now be lawfully demanded and received upon the Registry of Memorials of Deeds in the said Office.

Declarations heretofore made to be registered.

VI. And be it enacted, That the said Commissioners shall, within Three Months from the passing of this Act, draw up Memorandums or Instruments in Writing in the Manner and Form aforesaid, or as near thereto as the Circumstances of each Case will admit, of the several Declarations heretofore by them made under the Provision of the said recited Act, and Memorials thereof respectively, and cause the said Memorials to be entered and registered in the Register's Office for registering of Deeds in the City of Dublin in the same Manner as last aforesaid.

IX. And be it enacted, That from and after the passing of this Act it shall not be necessary that any Transfer of the Right or Interest in or to any Sum secured by any Certificate heretofore issued or hereafter to be issued under the said recited Act or this Act shall be in any specified Form, and that every Person who shall be entitled to the Money secured by any such Certificate may transfer his Right and Interest to the Principal Sum and Interest Money thereby secured to any Person by Endorsement thereon, and that all Rights and Remedies of the Person so endorsing in, to, or in respect of such Certificate shall, after such Endorsement, be vested in the Person to whom such Transfer shall be made, and that it shall not be necessary that the said Transfer or Endorsement shall be produced or certified to the Secretary of the said Commissioners, or for the said Secretary to make an Entry thereof, as in and by the said recited Act directed. Certificate of Loans may be transferred by Endorsement.

X. And be it enacted, That it shall and may be lawful for the said Commissioners, in any Case where they shall so deem fit, to make any Certificate or Set of Certificates granted under the said Act or this Act for the whole of the Monies required to be borrowed for such Case, payable at any Time (to be fixed as herein-after provided) intervening between Two Periods to be stated in such Certificates; and it shall be lawful for the said Commissioners to alter the Form of the Certificate provided by the said Act to suit the Circumstances of each Case, and such Certificate so varied shall be equally good and effectual as if the same were according to the Form by said Act prescribed. Commissioners may make Certificates payable within certain Periods.

XI. And be it enacted, That where more than One Certificate for any such Case shall be so issued and made payable between Two such Periods as aforesaid, the Commissioners shall, as soon as may be convenient after the final Settlement of their Award, give Notice in the Dublin Gazette, and in such other Newspapers and by such other Means as they shall think fit, to the Holders of such Certificates of their Intention, on a Day and Hour in said Notice to be fixed, not sooner than Fourteen Days from the Publication thereof, to hold a Ballot for the Purpose of determining the Order in which such Certificates shall be paid off; and upon the Day and at or after the Hour named the Commissioners shall accordingly proceed to make such Ballot in presence of such (if any) the Holders of such Certificates, or their Agents or Representatives, as shall attend at such Ballot, and if none of such Persons shall attend then in the Absence of such Persons; and the Result of such Ballot shall be recorded in the Office of the said Commissioners, and noted upon all such of the said Certificates as shall be then or subsequently produced to the said Commissioners; and such Record and Notification shall be signed by the Secretary for the Time being of said Commissioners, and all such Certificates shall be paid off in the Order so to be determined by such Ballot. The Rule by which Tonnage of Vessels is to be ascertained.

XVI. And be it enacted, That from and after the Commencement of this Act the Tonnage of every Ship or Vessel required by Law to be registered shall, previous to her being registered, be measured and ascertained while her Hold is clear, and according to the following Rule; (that is to say,) divide the Length of the upper Deck between the after Part of the Stem and the fore Part of the Stern-post into Six equal Parts; Depths, at the foremost, the middle, and the aftermost of those Points of Division, measure in Feet and decimal Parts of a Foot the Depths from the under Side of the upper Deck to the Ceiling at the Limber Strake; in the Case of a Break in the upper Deck the Depths are to be measured from a Line stretched in a Continuation of the Deck; Breadths, divide each of those Three Depths into Five equal Parts, and measure the inside Breadths at the following Points; (videlicet,) at One Fifth and at Four Fifths from the upper Deck of the foremost and aftermost Depths, and at Two Fifths and Four Fifths from the upper Deck of the Midship Depth; Length, at Half the Midship Depth measure the Length of the Vessel from the after Part of the Stem to the fore Part of the Stern-post; then to Twice the Midship Depth add the foremost and the aftermost Depths for the Sum of the Depths; add together the upper and lower Breadths at the foremost Division, Three Times the upper Breadth and the lower Breadth at the Midship Division, and the upper and Twice the lower Breadth at the after Division, for the Sum of the Breadths; then multiply the Sum of the Depths by the Sum of the Breadths, and this Product by the Length, and divide the final Product by Three thousand five hundred, which will give the Number of Tons for Register; if the Vessel have a Poop or Half Deck or a Break in the upper Deck, measure the inside mean Length, Breadth, and Height of such Part thereof as may be included within the Bulkhead; multiply these Three Measurements together, and dividing the Product by 92·4, the Quotient will be the Number of Tons to be added to the Result as above found; in order to ascertain the Tonnage of open Vessels the Depths are to be measured from the upper Edge of the upper Strake. Survey.

Mode of ascertaining Tonnage of Steam Vessels.

XVII. Provided always, and be it enacted, That in each of the several Rules herein-before prescribed, when applied for the Purpose of ascertaining the Tonnage of any Ship or Vessel propelled by Steam, the Tonnage due to the Cubical Contents of the Engine Room shall be deducted from the total Tonnage of the Vessel as determined by either of the Rules aforesaid, and the Remainder shall be deemed the true Register Tonnage of the said Ship or Vessel; the Tonnage due to the Cubical Contents of the Engine Room shall be determined in the following Manner; (that is to say,) measure the inside Length of the Engine Room in Feet and decimal Parts of a Foot from the foremost to the aftermost Bulkhead, then multiply the said Length by the Depth of the Ship or Vessel at the Midship Division as aforesaid, and the Product by the inside Breath at the same Division at Two Fifths of the Depth from the Deck, taken as aforesaid, and divide the last Product by 92·4, and the Quotient shall be deemed the Tonnage due to the Cubical Contents of the Engine Room.

Length, &c. of Engine Room to be set forth in Description of Steam Vessel.

XVIII. Provided always, and be it enacted, That the Tonnage due to the Cubical Contents of the Engine Room, and also the Length of the Engine Room, shall be set forth in the Certificate of Registry as Part of the Description of the Ship or Vessel, and that any Alteration of such Tonnage due to the Cubical Contents of the Engine Room, or of such Length of the Engine Room after Registry, shall be deemed to be an Alteration requiring Registry de novo within the Meaning of this Act.

IX. 'And whereas by an Act passed in the Fifty-ninth Year of the Reign of His late Majesty King 'George the Third, intituled An Act to carry into effect a Convention of Commerce concluded between 'His Majesty and the United States of America, and a Treaty with the Prince Regent of Portugal, 'divers Provisions were made respecting the Duties payable and the Bounties and Allowances to be 'granted upon the Importation and Exportation of Goods, Wares, and Merchandize into or from the 'United Kingdom in Vessels of the United States and in Portuguese Vessels, and respecting the Repay- 'ment to certain Corporations, Bodies Politic and Corporate, and sundry other Persons, of the Amount 'of the Sums of Money of which they would be deprived by means of the said Act, and it was thereby 'enacted that the said Act should continue in force so long as the Convention therein recited between 'His said late Majesty and the United States of America, and the Treaty therein recited between His 'said late Majesty and His Royal Highness the Prince Regent of Portugal, and so long as any Treaty to 'be made with any Foreign Power with the similar Provisions therein-before recited, should respectively 'continue in force: And whereas, subsequently to the Enactment of the said recited Act, Her Majesty 'and Her Royal Predecessors have made and concluded with divers Foreign Powers Treaties containing 'Provisions similar to those recited in the said recited Act, and Doubts have arisen whether, according 59 G. 3. c. 54. to apply to all Foreign Powers as well as United States and Portugal, and to Duties on Goods as well as on Ships.

'to the true Construction thereof, the said Act doth apply and extend to the Trade and Shipping of such 'other Foreign Powers, and whether the same applies to differential Duties and Charges on Goods 'imported or exported in Foreign Ships as well as to differential Duties and Charges on Foreign Ships, 'and it is expedient that such Doubts be removed;' be it therefore enacted and declared, That from and after the Ratification of any Treaty heretofore made by Her Majesty or any of Her Royal Predecessors subsequently to the Enactment of the said Act, or of any Treaty which may hereafter be made by Her Majesty, Her Heirs and Successors, with any such Foreign Power, in which Treaty has been or shall be contained Provisions similar to those recited in the said recited Act, all and every the Provisions, Clauses, Matters, and Things in the said recited Act contained shall apply and extend to the Trade and Shipping of such Foreign Powers respectively as fully and effectually to all Intents and Purposes as to the Trade and Shipping of the said United States and of the said Kingdom of Portugal, and also shall apply and extend to differential Duties or Charges on Goods imported or exported in the Ships of such Foreign Powers as well as to differential Duties on the Ships of such Foreign Powers.

Recited Act not to be construed as granting Powers beyond subsisting Treaties.

X. Provided nevertheless, and be it enacted and declared, That the said recited Act doth not extend, and shall not be construed to extend, to grant to or to confer upon the Trade or Shipping of the said United States, or of the said Kingdom of Portugal, or of any other Foreign Power, or to the Subjects of such States or Kingdom, or of any such Foreign Power as aforesaid, any other or greater Advantage than such as shall have been stipulated for by and granted to the said United States, the said Kingdom of Portugal, or any such other Foreign Power, by the respective Treaties subsisting and in force between them respectively and Her Majesty, Her Heirs and Successors, or Her Royal Predecessors, but that the said Act shall be so construed and applied as to give full and complete Effect to such respective Treaties so long as the same shall respectively remain in force, and is to provide such, and only such, Indemnity as therein mentioned to such Bodies Politic and Corporate, and other Persons as are therein mentioned, for such Losses as they shall respectively sustain by the Execution of such respective Treaties.

Her Majesty, with Advice of Privy Council, to declare the Powers with whom Treaties are subsisting.

XI. And for the Prevention of Uncertainty herein, be it enacted, That it shall and may be lawful for Her Majesty, Her Heirs and Successors, by any Order or Orders to be by Her or Them made, with the Advice of Her or Their Privy Council, and published in the London Gazette, from Time to Time to declare what are the Foreign Powers with which any such Treaty or Treaties as aforesaid is or are subsisting, and this present Act and the said recited Act shall apply and shall be deemed from the Time of the Ratification of any such Treaties to have been applicable to the Trade and Shipping of such Foreign Countries as shall be so mentioned in any such Order or Orders in Council as aforesaid, so long as any such Order or Orders shall continue unrevoked, and no longer.

Lords of Treasury may reduce Duties on Ships or Goods of Countries under Reciprocity.

XII. And be it enacted, That in any Case where any Treaty is in force between Her Majesty and any Foreign State, containing any Stipulations that no higher Duties or Charges shall be levied on the Vessels or Produce of such Foreign State, or upon Goods exported or imported in the Vessels of such Foreign State than on British Vessels or Produce, or upon the like Goods exported or imported in British Vessels, or any direct or indirect Stipulations to the like Effect, or for the like Objects, or any of them, it shall be lawful for the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury, or any Two or more of them, from Time to Time to give Directions that all Duties or Charges imposed by any Act passed after the Tenth Day of July One thousand eight hundred and forty-two upon the Vessels of such Foreign State entering or leaving any Port of Her Majesty's Dominions, or upon Articles of the Growth, Produce, or Manufacture of the Dominions of such Foreign State, or upon any Articles imported into the United Kingdom in Vessels of such Foreign State, or upon any Articles (or any particular Classes of Articles) exported from the United Kingdom (or exported from the United Kingdom to any particular Place or Places), shall be reduced to the same Rates as are in the like Cases imposed upon British Vessels, or upon the like Articles of British Growth, Produce, or Manufacture, or upon the like Articles imported into or exported from the United Kingdom in British Vessels, or to give so much of the said Directions as the Case may require.

And be it enacted, That all Manufactures of Gibraltar, Malta, and Heligoland made of Materials of Foreign Produce liable to Duty upon Importation into the United Kingdom, upon which no such Duty has been paid, or upon which Drawback of such Duty has been allowed in the United Kingdom, shall, for the Purposes of Duty, be deemed and taken to be the Produce of and imported from a Foreign Country.

Certain Produce of the State of Maine to be treated as the Produce of New Brunswick.

XIV. 'And whereas a Treaty has been concluded between Her Majesty and the United States of 'America, dated the Ninth Day of August in the Year One thousand eight hundred and forty-two, 'whereby it is stipulated that all the Produce of the Forest in Logs, Lumber, Timber, Timber Boards, 'Staves, or Shingles, or of Agriculture, not being manufactured, grown on any of those Parts of the 'State of Maine watered by the River Saint John or by its Tributaries, of which Fact reasonable 'Evidence shall, if required, be produced, shall have free Access into and through the said River and 'its Tributaries having their Source within the State of Maine to and from the Seaport at the Mouth of 'the River Saint John, and to and round the Falls of the said River, either by Boats, Rafts, or other 'Conveyance, and that when within the Province of New Brunswick the said Produce shall be dealt with 'as if it were the Produce of the said Province: And whereas it is the Intention of the High Con-'tracting Parties to the said Treaty that the aforesaid Produce should be dealt with as if it were the 'Produce of the Province of New Brunswick;' be it therefore enacted, That the Produce in the said recited Treaty and herein-before described shall, so far as regards all Laws relating to Duties, Navigation, and Customs in force in the United Kingdom, or in any of Her Majesty's Dominions, be deemed and taken to be and be dealt with as the Produce of the Province of New Brunswick: Provided nevertheless, that in all Cases in which Declarations and Certificates of Production or Origin, and Certificates of Clearance, would be required in respect of such Produce if it were the Produce of New Brunswick, similar Declarations and Certificates shall be required in respect of such Produce, and shall state the same to be the Produce of those Parts of the State of Maine which are entered by the River Saint John or by its Tributaries.

XV. And be it enacted, That upon the Exportation from the United Kingdom of any Foreign Rice or Paddy which shall have been cleaned therein, and which shall have paid the Duties payable on the Importation thereof, there shall be allowed and paid for every Hundred Weight thereof a Drawback equal in Amount to the Duty paid on every Four Bushels of the Rough Rice or Paddy from which the same shall have been cleaned.

XVI. Provided always, and be it enacted, That such Drawback upon Rice so exported shall be paid and allowed only upon such clean Rice as shall be deposited for the Purpose of Exportation, within One Calendar Month from the Day on which the Duty thereon had been paid, in some Warehouse in which Rice may be warehoused on Importation without Payment of Duty, and shall there remain secured until duly shipped to be exported from such Warehouse: Provided also, that the Exporter of such Rice shall make Declaration before the Collector or Comptroller that the Rice so warehoused for Exportation was cleaned from the Rough Rice or Paddy upon which the Duties had been so paid.

XVII. And be it enacted, That it shall be lawful for the Importer of any Goods subject to any Duties of Customs to warehouse such Goods upon the first Entry thereof, under the Laws in force for the warehousing of Goods, without Payment of Duty upon such first Entry, and that all Goods which shall have been so warehoused before the Commencement of any such Duties, and shall remain so warehoused after the Commencement of the same, shall become liable to such Duties in lieu of all former Duties.

And be it enacted, That all Goods the Produce of Places within the Limits of the East India Company's Charter having been imported into Malta or Gibraltar from those Places in British Ships shall, upon subsequent Importation into the United Kingdom direct from Malta or Gibraltar, be liable to the same Duties as the like Goods would respectively be liable to if imported direct from some Place within the Limits of the said Charter.

An Account of the Amount of hereditary Revenues of the Crown to be kept separate.

XX. 'And whereas by the Consolidation of the different Branches of the public Revenue, and of the 'several Duties payable on the Importation or Exportation of Goods, Wares, and Merchandize, and 'the Appropriation thereof, as directed by the several Acts in force in England, the hereditary and 'temporary Revenues of the Crown of Subsidies of Tonnage and Poundage, and of other Duties upon 'Goods, Wares, and Merchandize arising in England, are not now kept distinct and separate at the 'several Offices, but have become blended with other Duties of Customs and Tonnage both in the 'Collection and Appropriation thereof: And whereas it is expedient that Provision should be made 'for ascertaining the annual Amount of what such hereditary Revenues would have produced in case 'the same had not been so consolidated, and that an Account should hereafter be kept of such annual 'Amount;' be it therefore enacted, That from and after the passing of this Act the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland for the Time being, or any Three or more of them, shall cause to be prepared and kept an Account of what such hereditary Revenue arising in England would have amounted to in case the same had not been and was not consolidated and collected with other Duties of Customs and Tonnage in the Collection and Appropriation thereof, in such Manner and Form as shall appear to the said Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury for the Time being best adapted to ascertain such Amount, which Account the said Commissioners for the Time being are hereby required to make out, or cause to be made out, and laid before Parliament, together with the public Accounts directed to be laid before Parliament pursuant to the Provisions of the several Acts for directing public Accounts to be laid annually before Parliament.

Not to affect the hereditary Revenue in Scotland.
